Heaviest Barrage On Reds

Allies Use Rockets, Warplanes to Hit Central Front As 37-Day Battle Roars

By The Associated Press

SEOUL (AP)—Allied forces pounded Chinese positions late today with the heaviest rocket barrage and warplane strike in the 37-day-old battle for the vital Kumhwa ridges on the Central Korean Front.

Ih the air, U. S. Sabre jets destroyed five Communist MIG-15s. The Fifth Air Force announced it brought to 502 the red jet fighters destroyed since the war began—exclusive of those down by navy pilots.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from the Central Front that a total of 576 rockets were launched within a few seconds at Communist targets north of Allied-held Sniper Ridge.

The disk rocket barrage came after an intensive fighter-bomber strike against Chinese positions along a narrow, two-mile sector.

Randolph's dispatch on the rocket launching was timed at 9 p. m. (6 a. m. CST). An hour later he filed a report that two Chinese infantry companies attacked South Koreans dug in on Sniper Ridge. His censored dispatch indicated the attack was continuing.

"Whether tonight's action was just another probe or a heavy attack remained to be seen," he reported.

The Air Force reported that Capt. Paul E. Jones, Aragon, Ga., bagged two of the five MIGS. The Sabre pilots said they damaged two other Communist jets.

Jones, 31, flying with the 51st Fighter Wing, was credited with downing the 499th and 500th Migs. The Air Force made a special announcement of the 500th as the U. S. Air Force boss, Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, was touring the battlefront.

The Sabres were shielding Thunderjet fighter - bombers which smashed a huge troop concentration center and possible rocket launching site northeast of Chongju, about 50 miles south of the Manchurian air base at Antung.

The Air Force reported 25,000 gallons of jellied gasoline were dumped on the sprawling target. Pilots said the entire area was in flames. They said some 80 buildings were leveled and others damaged.

To the south, other Allied fighter-bombers threw one of the biggest air strikes in the 37 day-old battle for the Kumhwa ridges against Chinese field guns, bunkers and troops—with Vandenberg looking on.

Vandenberg watched the Central Front strike from a forward bunker. Air Force, Navy and Marine warplanes struck at the two-mile frontage for two hours and 15 minutes.

The U. S. Air Force chief of staff arrived in Japan several hours later, after concluding his two-day tour.

On the ground, South Korean Troops smashed a Chinese assault on Sniper Ridge in the crackling cold of daybreak after a night of minor probing thrusts on the Central Front position.

The U. S. Eighth Army reported an estimated 100 Reds hit the ridge after a moderate Chinese artillery shelling. After 50 minutes they withdrew to the comparative safety and warmth of a cave.

Elsewhere along the front, the numbing cold — 14 degrees — kept infantrymen of both sides huddled in their bunkers most of Wednesday night. Only scattered patrol skirmishes were reported.

An Eighth Army briefing officer said he did not regard the attack on Sniper Ridge as presaging any attempt to retake the bloody, shell-blistered terrain which changed hands a number of times in recent weeks—before the advent of winter cold.

Cross Roads Comment

By G. H. S.

Just peering out my second-story office window, I see the saddest-looking object — a dirty piece of spruce with the remnant of a dirtier ribbon right in the middle of a wire stretched across the street. It's been there since last Christmas. I hadn't noticed it until now when some business men turned their conversation to Christmas decorations.

This week-end the JCs are going to put up new decorations in the business district, and I know the holdover piece from last year will be removed, else I would have gotten Ira and Ernest to fish it down now that I'm developing a civic tidy complex.

We hope the decorations this year are pretty. So often they have been below average compared with other cities and towns. Of course Christmas decorations cost money and Sedalia has been lax in providing ample funds for something more elaborate. Many merchants have already contributed to the Chamber of Commerce fund but much more is still needed. Those who have not sent in their money should do so at once and ont try to ride the backs of those who have contributed. I must check our own business office to see whether we have paid up, and thus dodge a back-fire after having "writ this piece."

Dr. Geiger Heads Boy Scouts Of Lake of Ozarks Council

Sedalian Installed at Annual Meeting In Jefferson City Wednesday Night; He Has Served Movement for 10 Years

Dr. Lawrence Geiger

Dr. Lawrence Geiger, 912 South Prospect, was elected president of the Lake of the Ozarks Council, Boy Scouts of America, for the year 1953 at the annual meeting of the council held Wednesday night in Jefferson City.

Dr. Geiger for the past two years has served very capably as the council leadership training chairman and during his term of service has made outstanding progress in the field of leader training.

He began his service in Scouting about ten years ago when he served as assistant scoutmaster of Troop 1, at the Broadway Presbyterian Church, which later became Troop 65. He has maintained continuous interest in Scouting and has served in various positions, including president of the Sedalia Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Dr. Geiger's interests include the Rotary Club, the Broadway Presbyterian Church and his home. He is a member of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce and is active in various civic affairs.

Other officers elected were: Ira Mounts, Windsor, and Rex Whitton, Jefferson City, vice - presidents; Harry L. Miller, Jefferson City, council commissioner. Sedalians elected to the board were: Julius Stohr, Richard Snow, Oscar DeWolfe, William Hurlbut Jr., and Abe Silverman. Cline Cain is a member of the advisory committee and Atwell Bohling is a member of the board of trustees.

19 Sedalians Attend

The banquet was served to about 200 Scouters, their wives and guests, at the First Methodist Church in Jefferson City. Those attending from Sedalia were Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Geiger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hofheins and son, Don, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Jones, Kenneth Farley, Miss Anita Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lambirth, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Silverman, Paul Anthes, Julius Stohr, Oscar DeWolf, Cline Cain, James C. Langridge, field scout executive and Miss Hazel Lang.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Rex. M. Whitton, who introduced Fount Rothwell, toastmaster.

Invocation was by the Rev. Benjamin L. Schmidtke, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Jefferson City.

Following greetings from Rex M. Whitton, the executive's report was given by L. E. Moody, scout executive, and the officers were installed by R. G. Miller of Kansas City.

Two Get Silver Beaver

Two men were awarded the silver beaver, Edwin Ford of Eldon and Robert Hoy of Marshall. Lawrence D. Jones presented the awards. This high honor for distinctive service has been awarded to five Sedalians through the years since 1933 with a Sedalian, Lloyd L. Roe, to be the only person to receive it in that first year.

Other Sedalians receiving it are: Elmer Headlee, 1938; Cline Cain, 1941; Harry Lambirth, 1943, and Michael Wolfel, 1949. The men present having received the award previously were called to the front and two Sedalians, Cain and Lambirth, were among the group.

The address of the evening was given by Dr. Gunnar H. Berg, national officer from New York City who gave a very instructive talk filled with humor which was even more effective by facial expressions he used in telling his stories.

Better Living Thru Scouting

Dr. Berg said that the vision of Scouting is to light a torch. He urged better things to better living through Scouting. He told of the youngster who tried to build a fire with wet wood, another who stuck his piece of meat into the blaze of a big fire and burnt it to a crisp, and the stew he had seen that wasn't fit to eat.

They weren't interested in learning how to do things, he said, they just wanted to get by the Scoutmaster. Scouting, the speaker said, must be made life, if it is going to hold him so it becomes a part of his heart and soul and, added Dr. Berg, people are not going to pay for character building just for boys to have a good time.

A Scouter must feel — "All the world is out of joint and I was born to help set it right" said the speaker, and the best way to help set it right is through Scouting.

The closing ceremony was by Explorer Post ,1 of the First Methodist Church in Jefferson City.

The benediction was given by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. Vogelweid.

The committee in charge of the annual meeting was composed of Paul N. Doll, Dr. Lawrence Geiger and Edwin Ford.

Children Burned Fatally In Barn

QUINCY, Ill. (AP) — Two young children were burned to death today near the neighboring village of West Quincy, Mo. when fire destroyed a barn in which they were playing.

They are Jimmy Blentlinger, 4, and his five-year-old sister, Joyce children of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blentlinger.

Palmyra firemen said they believed the children were buried beneath a mass of burning straw when the barn on their farm home collapsed. Their bodies had not been recovered.

Mrs. Blentlinger was inside the family home caring for her two younger children when the fire was discovered by Tom Grimmer of Quincy as he was driving by the home.

New Start On MoPac Organization

After 19 Year Discussions, ICC Considers Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 19 - year-old proceeding designed to reorganize the giant Missouri Pacific Railroad system into a new company was reopened today for another look.

The Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC), which has had the matter before it since the depth of the depression in 1933, announced its decision to re-examine the reorganization plan late yesterday.

The action follows an eight-year clamor by MoPac common stockholders for recognition of their holdings in the company.

The ICC, in 1944 and again in 1949, held the common stock to be worthless and ruled common stockholders out of the proposed reorganization.

Robert R. Young, board chairman of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Co. and of Allegheny Corp., which owns a majority of the outstanding common, has personally led the long fight for reconsideration of the approved reorganization plans. The latest of these, in 1949, called for a new company capitalized at 612 million dollars.

Young has contended this figure is wholly inadequate in view of great improvements on the Mopac system, operating throughout the Southwest, and in view of post-war earnings.

Allegheny wants the plan amended to preserve the present common stock interest, or as an alternative have the reorganization idea discarded entirely.

The common stockholders say Mopac is now entirely solvent and should go forward on its present corporate basis with a simple adjustment of interest rates and bond maturities.

A special hearing panel composed of top officials in the ICC's finance bureau recommended reconsideration last July.

Going along with this idea, the full commission said yesterday the demonstrated increased earning power of the MoPac system and increased dollar - value of its investment as a result of the Korean War and the national defense program warrants a re-examination, and if necessary a revision of the 1949 reorganization plan.

Aussie Pastor Speaks Friday At Local Church

Dr. Arthur Preston, Methodist minister and community leader of Brsbane, Australia, will speak Friday at 7:30 p. m. at the Fifth Street Methodist Church. His subject will be "Life Down Under" and his talk will be illustrated with pictures he has taken in his travels.

Dr. Preston is a member of the Australian Council of Church and has had a leading part in evangelistic campaigns in all the capital cities of Australia, speaking at universities, to business men, in factories, in open - air meetings and over the radio. Fors several months he has been on a world tour, lecturing and preaching under the auspices of the Methodist Board of Missions.

The meeting here is being sponsored by the three Methodist Churches of Sedalia and is open to the public.

State Senate Demos Will Meet Dec. 10

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Democratic members of the Missouri senate will meet in Jefferson City Dec. 10 to determine the majority leadership in that branch of the state legislature.

The date was announced today by State Sen. Anthony M. Webb of St. Louis, caucus chairman.

The Democrats retained control of the state senate, 18 to 16, but lost control of the house of representatives to the Republicans in the general election.

Ike View Pleases Truman

Nation 'Unified' In Policy Toward Rest of World, He Declares Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said today he is very happy over Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's views on the Korean prisoner of war issue, and declared "This country is a unified organization in its policy toward the rest of the world."

In his first post-election news conference — his first in fact since Sept. 25 — Truman laid emphasis on unity and on the effort to make the shift of power to President-elect Eisenhower as smooth as possible.

He began with this statement which he permitted reporters to quote directly:

"I want you to understand that the election is over and that we are trying to get things in shape to make an orderly turnover of the government to the successor, and that we want to let the world know that this country is a unified organization in its policy toward the rest of the world.

"I was very happy to see that Gen. Eisenhower had told Sen. Wiley that he was with (sic) the policy on the prisoners of war in Korea. That was one of the main things about which we talked in the meeting the other day when he was down here."

Eisenhower and Truman met at the White House on Tuesday and later announced jointly that they had arranged for an exchange of information. They expressed belief this cooperation would be to the advantage of the country and promote a favorable progress of international affairs.

Yesterday, Eisenhower had a meeting in New York with Sen. Wiley of Wisconsin, who will become chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in the new Republican - controlled Congress.

Wiley said Eisenhower "is completely dedicated to the principles of the U. N. and re-emphasized his agreement with the principle of no forcible repatriation of Communist prisoners."

After Truman's reference to this, a reporter said the wording of Wiley's statement has been taken to indicate the general is agreeing only with the principle of the United Nations stand on prisoners of war and does not necessarily endorse the specific U. N. position.

Truman replied he was not going into semantics—that is, into the meaning of words. He said he was going by the headlines, which reported without elaboration that Eisenhower backed the United Nations position.

Truman said he would meet again with Eisenhower before the general takes over the White House — if Eisenhower wants another meeting.

Truman said last Tuesday's meeting with the President-elect was given over almost entirely to foreign affairs.

He said the prisoner of war issue was one of the subjects discussed and that they also talked about the Iranian problem.

He didn't give any details.

On other subjects:

Truman said he expects to meet Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson sometime around Dec. 1, when the defeated Democratic presidential candidate is coming to Washington.

He said again that he regards Stevenson as the head of the Democratic party.

Asked if he would recommend a new chairman of the Democratic National Committee in place of Stevenson's man, Stephen A. Mitchell, Truman replied that he would ask the governor for nothing—that he would merely offer cooperation in reorganizing the Democratic party.

Laughingly, Truman said in reply to a question that it is very much too early to discuss what he himself will do after leaving the White House.

He went on to say that he does not know himself yet what he will do eventually—that for a while he is not going to do anything but sit down and enjoy himself.

He said he'd have some information to make public about his plans on Jan. 21, the day after inauguration.

He did say, however, that he does not plan to maintain an office or an apartment in Washington.

Reporters asked several questions about statements Republican Sen. Robert A. Taft has made as to possible cuts in government spending.

Truman brushed them aside by saying Taft hasn't seen the 1953-54 budget and therefore does not know a thing about what's in it.

The president said he will submit this budget to Congress in January just the same as if he were going to continue as President.

He said it will be a good, tight budget.

In fact, he added, all his budgets have been honest, and even though the Republicans have fought over all of them they never have been able to do very much trimming

A reporter told him that Rep. John Taber (R-NY) had said he had heard that some outgoing officials were burning office files.

Truman said he has not heard anything like that, and he added that he does not think Taber has either.

Korean War Still A 'Police Action' To President Truman

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said today he still would describe the Korean conflict as a police action.

It is a police action of the United Nations to stop aggression and nothing else, he declared at his news conference when a reporter asked whether he would still use that description.

Truman said he is well aware that his use of the term "police action" has been challenged.

That's a political proposition, he said, adding that he does not care who challenges t—that he will let history decide.

New Congress May Retain Some Controls

Sen. Capehart Sees Action Even If Ike Disagrees

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) says he is certain the new Republican Congress will approve some form of price, wage and rent controls whether or not President-elect Eisenhower favors them.

Capehart, scheduled to become chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, which handles controls legislation, brought this out yesterday shortly after a hearing at which Price Stabilizer Tighe Woods urged that controls be extended.

The law authorizing controls will expire April 30 unless extended, and there has been talk in Congress of refusing to extend it.

Capehart told a reporter he was certain his committee would approve and Congress would pass some form of standby controls in the next session, whatever it decides about the present curbs.

Asked if he thought Eisenhower would want such standby authority, the Indiana senator said he did not know but that "we've got the votes for it whether he does or not."

"We can't afford to be without standby controls as long as the Korean War is on," Capehart asserted. "I think it might be a good idea to have them in any case."

Woods, meanwhile, is preparing to knock retail price ceilings off virtually all items of clothing, except possibly children's and infants' wear, by Dec. 1.

He announced his decision to senators yesterday after he had ordered the suspension of price controls on women's street and dress millinery and on bottled soft drinks.

Woods told the Senate-House Defense Production Committee, before which he appeared as a witness, that he is determined to order a rollback of the retail price of beef if this is legally possible.

But he said he has encountered thorny problems in investigating what he termed a "lopsided gap" between the price farmers get for live cattle and the price the housewives pay for beef.

Capehart told Woods he wants the meat problem solved speedily because he said the farmer is being hurt by low cattle price while consumers are getting small relief from high prices.

Capehart announced later that one of his first acts after taking commanding of the Banking Committee on Jan. 3 will be to call price control officials to report on the beef price situation.

"They've missed fire in controlling meat prices or you wouldn't have that situation," Capehart told a reporter.

Woods, in more than three hours of testimony before the committee which keeps an eye on inflation control and defense production problems, strongly urged Congress not to abandon price stabilization.

The committee listened intently to his estimate that (1) some 200 price-controlled items consumed in industry would undergo "immediate" price rises if controls are ended, and (2) that a bulge of only 3 per cent in their price levels "would burden the budget with almost two billion dollars" additional cost of the defense program.

He predicted another result would be rounds of wage increases and price increases in items which have never been controlled.

Pettis Historical Dinner Meeting Friday

The second annual sustaining membership dinner and program of the Pettis County Historical Society will be held at the Bothwell Hotel Friday, Nov. 21, at 7 p. m., with J. V. Kesterson presiding.

Guest speaker will be Frederick Shayne, professor of art at the University of Missouri, who will give an illustrated lecture on scenes of Missouri. He will be introduced by C. F. Scotten.

Candidates Get Exactly Same Vote

ST. LOUIS (AP) — William P. Donovan and Elmer J. Meyer ran a dead heat in their race for state representative on the basis of unofficial figures, including the absentee vote.

The official canvass will be made Monday.

Both candidates received 12,410 votes in the first district on the basis of unofficial figures, the St. Louis County board of election Commissioners said today.

Dulles, Wilson, McKay Named To Cabinet Posts by General

Press Secretary Tells Selections; Ike Dines With Eden

NEW YORK (AP)— President-elect Eisenhower announced today he has chosen John Foster Dulles as secretary of state; Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors, as Secretary of Defense, and Gov. Douglas McKay of Oregon as secretary of the interior.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, gave the news to the press while the general was lunching with Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, at Eisenhower's Hotel Commodore headquarters.

Hagerty read the following statement:

"President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower announced today that following his inauguration he would send the nominations of the following to the Senate for confirmation as members of his cabinet:

"John Foster Dulles, of New York City—secretary of state.

"Charles E. Wilson, of Detroit, of the General Motors Corp.—secretary of defense.

"Gov. Douglas McKay, of Salem, Oregon—secretary of the interior."

Eisenhower had conferred earlier today with Dulles, Republican foreign policy advisor and author of the Japanese peace treaty.

The President-elect conferred with Wilson here last night.

Dulles, following his conference with Eisenhower this morning, had declined to confirm or deny that Eisenhower had offered him the top cabinet post.

The three appointments were the first to be announced by Eisenhower for the Repubican administration that will take office on January 20.

Wilson 'Honored', . Accepts Position

DETROIT (AP) — C. E. Wilson, president of General Motors Corp., today made the following statement:

"I am deep honored by President-elect Eisenhower's selection of me to assume the responsibilities of secretary of defense in the new administration.

"The invitation came as a great surprise to me.

"In the present state of world affairs such a call to duty could not be turned aside by any citizen. I will accept the appointment with every determination to assist our new president in his efforts toward peace.

"If and when I am confirmed as secretary of defense by the Senate, I will sever my business connections and devote my entire time to the job."

Dulles Accepts

NEW YORK (AP) — John Foster Dulles, named by President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower today as secretary of state in his cabinet, said in a statement issued from his New York home:

"General Eisenhower has asked me to be his secretary of state, subject to Senate confirmation, and I have accepted.

"General Eisenhower is a great and purposeful leader. His desire for our nation is a just and durable peace.

"I shall glady serve in that cause to the best of my ability."

McKay Takes Post

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Oregon's Gov. Douglas McKay, 59, named secretary of the interior by President-elect Eisenhower, said the general telephoned him this morning with the offer and he accepted.

McKay, who has been an active member of the Columbia basin interagency committee studying resources development, said he would have no statement on his policies.

He has frequently backed reclamation project work and in the course of the recent political campaign he said repeatedly that a Republican administration would not mean an end to construction of multi-purpose dams on rivers of the Pacific Northwest.

McKay is a World War I purple heart veteran and served in this country in World War II.

St. Louis Donnelly Club Spends $26,114

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The organization division of the St. Louis Donnelly for Governor Club received and spent $26,114 in the primary election campaign for Gov. - elect Phil M. Donnelly, it reported today to the St. Louis recorder of deeds.

The bulk of the money — $25,600— was spent in financing clubs in the various wards. John J. Dwyer, city treasurer and chairman of the Democratic city committee, was the largest contributor, giving a total of $1,133.

Open Bids for SAFB Buildings Thursday

Baumann Construction Co., Apparent Low Bidder for 11 Structures; Contract Awarded Eby Firm for Hangar at Base

Opening of bids for the Group "B" construction at the Sedalia Air Base, a project for the construction of 11 buildings, was held Thursday morning at the district office at Kansas City of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers. The Braumann Construction Co., Nevada, was the apparent low bidder with a bid of $1,336,472.

The opening was conducted by Capt. J. W. Kelley, executive officer, who handled the proceedings for Col. L. J. Lincoln, in charge of the district office at Kansas City.

The apparent low bidder on another project, for the extension of the present water distribution system and sewer system, was the Presdale Construction Co., Kansas City. The Kansas City firm bid $107,298.08. The government estimate on this project was $123,-395.61.

On the Group "B" project, the government estimate was $1,472,-057.02 the low bid being $35,-585.02 less.

Award Hangar Contract

The Corps of Engineers also announced the awarding of the big hangar contract to the Martin K. Eby Construction Co., of Wichita Kan., on their basis bid which was $1,534,992. This company had the low bid on an alternate proposal, but the Air Force was quick to accept the basic bid which calls for a sprinkling system, while the alternate proposal eliminated the sprinkling system.

The Martin K. Eby Co., is being notified of their bid being accepted and work is to start by Dec. 1. The firm has 360 calendar days to complete the job.

Building In B Group

The Group "B" project calls for the construction of: a one-story telephone exchange and communications building of a masonary type; four one-story wood frame buildings for squadron headquarters and operations; three, two story wood frame buildings for bachelor officers quarters; one, one-story wood frame building for a combination fire station and crash reecue building; one, two-story wood frame building for wing headquarters and maintenance; one, one-story wood frame building for air police headquarters; one, one-story wood frame building for the air base group headquarters. All buildings are to have concrete block substructure.

As soon as the contract is approved the contractor is to start within 10 days after his notification. The contractor has 330 calender days to complete the project, excluding Sundays and holidays.

The spread in the bid was from the low figure submitted by the Baumann firm to the high bid of Joseph Skilken Co., Columbus, O., whose figure was $2,323,000.

On the water distribution system and sewer system the contractor is to begin work within ten calendar days after he receives official notification, and has 240 calendar days excluding Sundays and holidays to complete the job.

The high bid on this project was the John H. Parkinson Co., Camdenton, whose figure was $17,595.

The contract calls for extending the the system new facilities on the base.

Eight Airmen Killed As Bomber Crashes

QUONSET POINT, R. I. (AP)—Three officers and five enlisted men died today in the crash into the sea of a PRV, a Neptune bomber, 70 miles southeast of Block Island.

The plane, participating in anti-submarine exercises, "made a pass" at a submarine, then hit the water, the Navy said. It was operating with a second plane at the time.

The Navy withheld identification of the casualties pending notification of next of kin.

GOP to Trim US Spending, Aid Abroad

Experts Predicting Congress to Shift Stress Toward Asia

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign affairs experts predicted today the new Republican-controlled Congress will trim U. S. spending abroad, with emphasis on military and economic aid shifting from Europe to Asia.

Foreign aid likely will kick off the first big debate in the 83rd Congress convening Jan. 3. Extension of the Mutual Assistance Program is one of the first things on its agenda.

With Republican leaders just about agreed on a top budget figure of 70 billion dollars in fiscal 1953-54, the foreign spending program faces possibly hefty reductions for the year beginning July 1. The authorization for this year, ending next June, is $6,447,730,750.

Any controversy is certain to center around American outlay of $33,104,867,055 during the postwar years since 1945 and gross foreign spending of some 87 billion dollars since 1940.

Much of the money authorized and appropriated is as yet unspent. As of last June, the mutual security program showed a five-billion-dollar balance earmarked for guns, tanks, aircraft and the like. Funds not obligated and carried over amounted to about 400 millions.

Rep. Lawrence Smith of Wisconsin, fourth-ranking Republican member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said the whole foreign aid program must be reviewed and reduced. He told a reporter:

"I don't think the country will stand for any more all-out spending. We owe it to the country to sit down in bipartisan fashion and take a good look at the new problems which have arisen."

Hunt for Three Finger Brown Being Pushed

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI hunted today for Thomas (Three-Finger Brown) Luchese in the wake of State Crime Commission hearings which recessed with testimony aimed at a former judge's financial affairs.

The state probers looking into political-underworld links no sooner suspended the public hearings yesterday than U. S. Atty. Gen. James P. McGranery authorized the FBI search for Luchese, wealthy garment manufacturer and ex-convict described as a boss racketeer and friend of politicians.

Luchese previously testified privately before the commission but balked at talking at the open hearings.

A two-day search by a U. S. marshal and two deputies failed to locate Luchese. The government seeks to take away his citizenship and deport him to his native Sicily.

Officials are hunting him to serve denaturalization papers. He allegedly concealed arrests in obtaining citizenship.

In the final hours of the commission hearings, witnesses described the financial dealings of 71-year-old retired State Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy, appointed last year as a court referee.

The commission introduced records purporting to show that Levy's known receipts totaled $326,000 from 1946 to 1951 inclusive while he spent $406,000 during the same period. Levy's judgeship pay over the six-year period amounted to $168,000—$28,000 a year.

In explaining his inability to give the commission an accurate estimate of his living expenses, Levy said in closed-session testimony:

"Look, I'm very free with money. Money never had any value with me, not from my earliest days."

McCarthy Believes He'll Head Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) said today he assumes he will become chairman of the Senate investigating group in the new Congress and when he does, he will push Communist-in-government probes.

McCarthy also told reporters he is convinced President-elect Eisenhower will give the incoming Republican-controlled Congress "anything that is necessary to clean house" in the government.

Report 'Hot-Rodder' Killed to Win Bet His Car Could 'Fly'

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Sheriff Max Hill has announced an inquiry into rumors that a teenage "hot-rodder" lost his life either in an attempt to win a bet or prove a boast when his car crashed as he tried to clear a 594-foot gap in an unfinished viaduct.

Franklin Boisseau, 18, of Belleville was killed last Friday as his car crashed and crumpled against a concrete pier of the viaduct being constructed on new Dutch Hollow road near Belleville.

Boisseau's machine cleared the first pier, and hurtled an estimated 210 feet through the air before the crash.

Sheriff Hill, announcing the inquiry yesterday, said the youth was a member of a local "hot rod" club, but was driving the family sedan on the night of the accident. He added that members of the club used the uncompleted, graded road as a racing strip.

State Circuit Clerks And Recorders to Ask For Salary Increase

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP) — The legislative committee of the Circuit Clerks and Recorders Association of Missouri has been instructed by the group to submit bills to the state legislature seeking a wage increase for clerks and recorders.

The instructions, delivered yesterday as the association's two-day annual meeting opened here, also asked that a flat fee be fixed for clerks in court cases.

Eddie Clouse, vice-president and Saline County recorder, said the wage increase would be based on county population and partly on assessed valuation of the county.

Additional duties would be assigned to the recorders, Clouse said, in return for the pay increase. A similar bill was submitted too late for action during the last General Assembly.

Clouse moves up as president of the group today, replacing Cleo Cauthon of St. Clair County.

Clay is used as part of the "filler" in many types of high grade paper.

Auto Parts Thefts Get First Arrests

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first break in an alleged big-scale stealing of auto parts from the Willys Overland Company has been disclosed by the FBI.

G-men who announced the arrest of three men in Baltimore, New York and Washington last night said they had recovered $100,000 worth of new Jeep parts tucked away in warehouses at Detroit and Baltimore.

They said the three men were members of a huge ring accused of stealing such items as axles, generators, and fuel pumps from the Toledo firm.

Bus Segregaion Called Illegal By Federal Court

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Segregation of white and Negro passengers on buses running between states has been declared illegal by a Federal District Court here.

The decision yesterday came a week after the U. S. Supreme Court declined to review another ruling by the same District Court which invalidated segregation on interstate railroad travel.

The prior ruling established the precedent that led to Judge Sterling Hutcheson's decision in the bus segregation case.

"If such regulation (requiring segregation) issued by a railroad is invalid, it necessarily follows that its adoption by a bus company would not make it valid," said Judge Hutcheson.

The decision resulted from a case brought by J. B. Williams, a Negro of Spring Hope, N.C. Williams charged he was put off a bus operated by the Carolina Coach Company—better known as Trailways Lines—when he refused to move his seat while on a trip to Norfolk Sept. 4, 1950.

Arrested on a charge of violating North Carolina's segregation ordinance—the charge later was dismissed—Williams sued for $50,000. Judge Hutcheson awarded him $251 in compensatory damages.

Martin A. Martin, Richmond Negro attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People who represented Williams, said the decision will bring about the abolition of segregation on common carriers throughout the South.

The company postponed a decision on whether to appeal the ruling until a formal order is entered in a few days.

A survey conducted for the four New York City municipal colleges indicates that the divorce rate among graduates are from one-fourth to one-tenth those of the nation as a whole.

Cole Camp Couple Celebrate 55th Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ehlers, Cole Camp, were very much surprised Sunday when they returned home from church and found a large crowd of relatives gathered there to help celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary. It was also Mrs. John Boeschen's 90th birthday.

A three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom centered the table. The noon meal was served cafeteria style to the large crowd.

The Rev. A. C. Zeilinger, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Stover, held a brief devotional in honor of the couple following the dinner.

The afternoon was spent in conversation, taking pictures and playing games.

Present were: The Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Zeilinger, Mrs. W. C. Weymuth, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eckhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ehlers and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lorenz and sons Rodney and Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schroeder, Concordia; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Brunkhorst, Blackburn; Mr. and Mrs. Murl Howard, John L. Heimsoth, Neil Heimsoth, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kipp, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kipp, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Parker and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Heimsoth and son, Henry Kipp, all of Stover, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Lanning and children, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Heisterberg, Sedalia; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ebeling and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Vern D. Weymuth and son, Mrs. Lena Imbusch, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boeschen, Mrs. John Boeschen, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heisterberg, Mrs. Elizabeth Heisterberg and daughter, Cole Camp; Walter Heisterberg, Versailles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers received many nice gifts.

Home Builders Class Meets at Stewart Home

Mrs. Ralph Stewart, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Palmer, was hostess to the members of the Home Builders Class of the Green Ridge Presbyterian Sunday School Monday afternoon, Nov. 17, at her home in Green Ridge.

The president, Mrs. Albert Upton, called the meeting to order and opened with the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison.

During the business meeting the members voted to give the clothing that had been collected for a rummage sale to the Salvation Army for distribution to the needy.

The pennies that the members had been saving for the past year in the piggy bank were counted and the amount of $25 was sent to the Presbyterian Orphanage of Missouri at Farmington as a Thanksgiving gift.

Mrs. A. N. Baker was a guest of the class and during the meeting the menu for Mr. and Mrs. Baker's golden wedding anniversary was planned. The Home Builders Class will serve in the basement dining room of the church on Sunday, Nov. 30.

There was a general discussion about the Home Builders class room which the members of the class had recently re-painted.

Mrs. Floyd Brownfield and Mrs. J. A. Gordon received the hostess gifts.

The meeting closed with the class benediction and the hostesses served refreshments suggestive of Thanksgiving Day to fifteen members and two children and a social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. Hartman, Hostess To Pilot Grove WSCS

Mrs. A. R. Hartman was hostess to members of the Pilot Grove WSCS Friday afternoon. Mrs. Carl Day conducted the business session during which time plans were made to hold their book study "Understanding the Bible" in January and a food sale by members of the church at the MFA Store, Dec. 6.

Mrs. Joe Rybak, leader, chose "By a New and Living Way" as her topic. She was assisted by Mrs. J. A. Brownfield, Mrs. William Ashmead and Mrs. Carl Day. A short spiritual lesson was given by Mrs. Lizzie Lee.

About Town

Mrs. Florence Elliott, manager of Connor-Wagoners, has returned home from Chicago where she has been on a buying trip.

Mrs. D. M. Pinkston, 111 West Broadway, left Thursday noon for Wichita, Kan., where she will spend a month with her daughter, Mrs. Stewart R. Carter and Mr. Carter.

Miss Carolyn Garrett, 1200 Liberty Park, and Miss Rose Ann Heuerman, 1404 East Ninth, have returned from Lawrence, Kan., where they spent the weekend. While there they attended the fall formal of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Leo Schanz and son Billy returned to their home in Chicago, Ill., Sunday after spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schanz and sister, Wilma, Hughesville. Mrs. Schanz and son spent last week with her parents Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Fichthorn, Marshall.

Miss Roseanne Dugan, county director of welfare, and Miss Margaret Grady, case work supervisor of the local welfare office, left Thursday for Columbia where they will attend a two-day State Welfare directors meeting. They were accompanied by Mrs. Eunice Scott, county director of welfare of Moniteau County.

Houstonia PTA Has Recent Meeting

Houstonia PTA held its November meeting Monday evening with the president, Mrs. Walter Fricke, presiding. The devotional was given by Mrs. W. J. Cox.

Mrs. Hall Walk and Mrs. Earl Gregory reported on the district convention of six counties which they attended at Lincoln. Mrs. Fricke reported on the state PTA convention.

Mrs. G. L. Morris presented the following musical program: "Song, I'm An Old Cowhand;" Marilyn Smiley and Sharon Shaw sang "Daddy's Little Girl" and was portrayed by Suzanna Smiley, who sat on her father's knee. As the Reid and Charles boys played "Cry" Dale Norfleet did imitations of crying. The high school chorus accompanied by Barbara Schondelmeier sang "Oh, Suzanna" as Betty Jo Farris dressed as a Negro mammy played her banjo. Mrs. Dean Slaybaugh, primary teacher, accompanied by Miss Esther Leiter sang "Paper Dolls." Eldon Kreisel with paper dolls portrayed this scene. Norma Bechtel dressed as an Indian girl stood on the stage as the girls' chorus sang "Indian Love Call." As the final number the audience sang "America" and Roger Fitzgerald displayed the flag.

Longwood WSCS Enjoys Covered Dish Luncheon

Longwood Methodist WSCS met Nov. 6 and enjoyed a covered dish luncheon at the home of Miss Mattie Ezell.

The Week of Prayer and Self Denial program was led by Mrs. John Greer assisted by Miss Ezell, Mrs. P. Grinstead, Mrs. J. W. Ezell and Miss Emma Brashear. Mrs. Grinstead told a Thanksgiving story for the devotional and Dr. Walter Brown, Fayette, spoke on "World Peace."

Mrs. John Greer presided over the business session and report blanks were given to the officers. Plans were made for the bazaar and fellowship supper to be held at the church Nov. 25.

Mrs. Lutie Baker and Mrs. Walter Shanz were guests.

The December meeting will be an all day affair at the home of Mrs. John Greer. Each member is to bring a white gift to be sent to Mercy Hospital and an offering for the Methodist orphanage at St. Louis. Mrs. Earl Schroeder will be program leader.

F86 Jet Sets Speed Record Of 699 M.P.H.

THERMAL, Calif. (AP)—A roaring, flame-spewing F86d Saber jet plane piloted by Capt. J. Slade Nash of Edwards Air Force Base has established a new unofficial world speed record—699.9 miles per hours.

Capt. Nash, 31, whose home is in Moville, Ia., made four low-level passes yesterday over a measured three-kilometer course at the edge of the Salton Sea, 235 feet below sea level. His performance was made under rules of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale and the National Aeronautics Association, which must verify it before it becomes official.

In shattering the record for operational aircraft in the North American all-weather interceptor, Capt. Nash topped the 670.981 miles per hour mark set last Sept. 15 by Maj. Richard L. Johnson at Edwards AFB. Johnson used an earlier Sabre model, the F86a.

At his top speed Capt. Nash's plane nosed toward the dangerous compressibility of the sonic wall. The speed of sound in the 75-degree temperature of the lake shore was about 775 miles per hour at the time of the test runs in the Imperial Valley.

The rules under which the flight was made specified that the plane must not fly higher than 1,640 feet. Actually, Capt. Nash made the four passes at not more than 100 feet off the sun-swept earth of the eastern shore of the inland sea. He was monitored by four T28 training planes and timed with high speed movie cameras and a special chronograph system.

The North American Sabre carried 24 rockets in a retractable launcher and weighed about nine tons. It was powered by a General Electric turbojet with afterburner developing in excess of 5,700 pounds thrust.

Capt. Nash's wife Glena, mother of three young daughters, was at the field to see her husband set the record. She appeared calm but she admitted to "plenty of nervousness" and said she was glad when it was over.

Nash himself said there was little rough air to contend with "despite the low altitude."

"I experienced some mild shock waves," he told newsmen. "They were like streaks of lightning around the canopy during the runs. This is normal, however, at high speed."

He said he was completely satisfied with his plane's performance.

Griffin Gets Plaques For Work as Chairman Of Training Schools

ST. LOUIS (AP)—John J. Griffin, a vice president of the Bank of St. Louis, has been awarded two plaques for his 27 months as chairman of the Missouri Board of Training Schools.

One of the plaques was presented on behalf of the board and the other was from employes and students of the three schools under the board. These are the Training School for Boys at Boonville, the one for girls at Chillicothe and the one for negro girls at Tipton.

The plaques were presented as the board met here yesterday.

Griffin's service as chairman of the board ended last July 1.

Bloodhounds Fail To Find Escapees

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Bloodhounds failed to find two fugitive state prisoners last night. The dogs from Algoa intermediate reformatory were put on the trail after two break-ins were reported at Columbia.

The Highway Patrol identified the fugitives as Lloyd Shaeffer, 31, serving five years from Hickory County for getting money under false pretenses, and Morris McCarty, 21, serving two years from Jasper County for burglary.

They slipped away from the state penitentiary's sawmill near Tebbets Saturday night. The same night a store and the postoffice at New Bloomfield were burglarized but the loot was small.

County Superintendents Vote for School Plan Except for Eliminating Their Office

C. F. Scotten of Pettis County was among the 104 county school superintendents who met in Jefferson City Monday and Tuesday and who unanimously voted to support a proposed modernization of the state's public school system—providing a change is made in the part which would abolish the office of county superintendent.

The proposal, put forward by a citizens' study group last summer, said in part: "In some counties, where all districts have been reorganized, there seeems to be little, if any, need for such an office."

The elective county superintendents said their offices should not be abolished. Instead they should be retained as chief administrative officers on the county boards of education. The modernization plan provides for establishment of the county school boards.

In an interview Wednesday, Mr. Scotten said: "We believe the county should be established as a unit of intermediary administration between the local and state levels, with the ability to offer and receive assistance both ways."

He said the office of county superintendent should be strengthened to permit the superintendent to provide special services to the rural districts which could not afford those services alone.

Such services, he said, would include guidance, attendance, health, safety, service to handicapped children, continued research in the educational needs of the county and supervisory service to teachers.

"This service," he added, "would be available to all types of schools in the county up to schools having 1,500 pupils in average daily attendance, if acceptable to those schools. The program would not be mandatory."

"We feel," he continued, "that during the reorganization of our school system there still is a definite place for the county superintendent."

What happens after a county is completely reorganized into large districts, he was asked.

still be needed," he replied, "because there would still be certain special services that even the large districts would not be large enough to afford."

At one point in the modernization plan, it is suggested that a county board be elected which in turn would appoint the superintendent.

Asked about this, Scotten answered, "We think the superintendents should continue to be elected by popular vote, the same as the county board."

The superintendents met at the Missouri Hotel Monday and Tuesday at the seventh annual winter meeting of the Missouri State Association of County Superintendents. Heretofore no direct stand had been taken by the association on the recommendations made by the citizens' study group.

Charles A. Repp, Cooper County superintendent and president of the association, said if the citizens' commission won't accept their suggested change the superintendents would offer the legislature their own modernization plan.

...ten, commenting on Repp's statement, said he felt the united stand of the superintendents would convince the study group that a compromise would be desirable. He said that should it be necessary to submit a separate plan to the legislature, only that part dealing with county superi...endents and the study group agree on everything else.

Western Allies Avoiding Split On India Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Twenty-one Western allies fought today to avert a threatened split in their ranks over whether to give India's compromise plan on Korea priority over the American resolution they are sponsoring in the U. N.

The U. S. delegation, voicing fears that the Indian proposal on the deadlocked Korean prisoner of war issue was ambigious, would not work out, reportedly was under strong pressure by British commonwealth nations and France to accept some variation, at least of the plan put forward yesterday by India's V. L. Krishna Menon of the General Assembly's political committee.

There was a threat that, whether the U. S. goes along or not, some of the allies may throw their support to Menon's resolution calling for a four-power commission to handle the repatriation of prisoners and to take care of those who resist going back to their homelands until a political conference decides their fate.

All parties in the group struggled to avoid an open break. They planned to thrash out the matter today after hearing the report of an eight-nation sub-committee they appointed to discuss the Indian plan.

It was in that sub-committee that U. S. Ambassador Ernest A. Gross held ground last night against growing sentiments in favor of the Indian resolution. He insisted that Menon still had not clarified ambiguities the Americans found in his resolution when he made his impassioned plea for its acceptance by both sides yesterday.

While not rejecting the Indian plan outright, the Americans said before they can accept any plan it must clearly guarantee that no prisoner will be forcibly repatriated or forcibly detained and full assurance that those not wishing repatriation will not be pawns in later political considerations.

The Americans fought an uphill battle to keep the 21 nation resolution introduced by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson to the fore as the committee's debate approached its climax. That resolution calls on the assembly to approve the U. N. command's stand in the Panmunjom negotiations and to urge the Communists to accept those terms for a truce. It already has been flatly rejected by the Russians and their Red allies.

Tornado Rips Through No Carolina Village

OXFORD, N. C. (AP) — A violent tornado dipped briefly into a small rural community late last night, wrecked six buildings and caused $400,000 damage.

The twister struck the brick, 400-pupil Oak Hill school and five adjacent buildings at 11:37 p. m.—the time that electric clocks stopped. Miss Nannie Lou Adcock, first grade teacher who suffered a cut ankle, was the only casualty. She and other teachers occupied a nearby teacherage.

A Democrat class ad will do it.

Detective Claims 'Frame' In Charges Of Beating Trucker

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A St. Louis detective-sergeant has charged hoodlums are trying to "frame" him in in the beating of a 39-year-old truck firm operator that has led to a circuit court grand jury inquiry.

The officer, John A. Doherty, made the statement to newsmen after appearing as a witness before the jury yesterday. He said certain persons, whom he did not identify, were attempting to discredit him because of his record of arrests.

The victim of the beating, John Randazzo, is hospitalized with a broken jaw and other injuries. He was quoted as naming a detective-sergeant as his assailant by Police Commissioner Nicholas Reidy, who declined to identify the officer.

Missourians Returning From Korean War Area

Eighty-seven Missourians are scheduled to arrive at Seattle, Wash., Friday from the Far East aboard the Marine Adder which is carrying 2,180 rotation troops.

They include, from this part of the state, Cpl. George J. Bestgen, Bunceton; St. Charles L. Cramer, Chamois; Cpl. Joseph R. Gibson and Pvt. Emmett H. Gilliam, both of Marshall.

46 Persons Hurt As Train Strikes Crowded City Bus

HOUSTON (AP) — At least 46 people were injured today as a passenger train struck a crowded city bus near downtown Houston.

There were no reports of critical injuries.

Thirty five people were treated at St. Joseph's Infirmary, five each at Hermann and Memorial hospitals and one at the City-County Hospital.

The collision occured at 8:10 a. m., only five minutes before the train, Santa Fe's No. 65 from the West Coast, was to arrive at the union railroad station.

About two-thirds of the bus appeared to have cleared the tracks when it was struck by the train. It was dragged about 50 feet from the point of impact and stopped parallel with the train engine.

Quick Thinking Truck Driver Saves Lives But Wrecks Truck

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Quick thinking by a truck driver who found his vehicle's brakes out of order as he neared a busy intersection was credited with possibly saving several lives yesterday by suburban Clayton police.

To avoid crashing into cross traffic, the driver, John Cross of Des Peres, Mo., swerved his truck and 32-foot trailer over a curb and crashed into a gas station pump. The heavy trailer and truck turned over on two parked cars which were unoccupied.

Cross was uninjured.

Servicemen Stay Together Even on Furloughs at Home

Two Sedalians who graduated together from Smith - Cotton High School and then joined the Air Force together are both home on furloughs. One arrived Friday night and the other stepped off the train at noon Tuesday. A big chocolate cake awaited the latter at his home.

The servicemen are A 2-c Robert Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams, 907 West Seventh, and A 2-c Kenneth Satterwhite, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Satterwhite, 1525 East Sixth.

Bob and Kenneth graduated from high school in May 1951 and joined the Air Force Jan. 9, 1952. They took their basic training together at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., finishing on March 8.

From there they were sent to separate specialty training schools, Bob to Keesler Air Field at Biloxi, Miss., to be trained as a flight radio operator and Kenneth to Scott Field, Ill., to learn the job of ground radio repairman.

Kenneth will leave Nov. 26 for another assignment at Shreveport, La.

A third classmate who joined the Air Force with them at the same time and who also went through basic training with them is A 2-c Joe Brosch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brosch, 239 South Grand, who is attending a jet school at Amarillo Air Force Base in Texas.

While at Biloxi, Bob met and often visited with the Rev. and Mrs. Glen Lindley, who formerly lived at 814 West Fifth until they moved to Mississippi a few months ago. The Rev. Lindley was pastor of the First Congregational-Presbyterian Church here.

Norman Logan Home, Discharged by Navy

Norman Logan, machinist mate, second class, recently recently receiving his discharge from the U. S. Navy, has returned to Sedalia after serving 11 months in the Korean area. He received his boot training at San Diego, Calif., then was at various naval air bases in the states before going overseas. His service was chiefly on the cruisers, Valley Forge and Princeton.

Previous to entering service he was employed by the Sedalia Democrat and Capital.

His discharge was at San Diego following which he returned to the home of his mother, Mrs. Anna Logan, 1519 South Ingram.

Pravda Calls H-Bomb Tests 'Blackmail'

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda today called the recent U. S. hydrogen bomb tests "blackmail." It was the first Soviet comment on the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission's announcement Sunday that successful research on the super - bomb had been carried out at Eniwetok.

"Those who inspire such reports," said an editorial in the leading Soviet paper, "evidently suppose that 'hydrogen' blackmail will bring more than did the atomic."

At one time there were about 13,000 men named John Smith on the U. S. Veteran's Administration rolls.

an old-fashioned BLACKBERRY CORDIAL
MADE FROM Fresh BLACKBERRIES

The history of Mother Putnam Blackberry Cordial dates back to 1890. Relaxation was quite an art then and called for many pleasures, including good food carefully prepared, and the right drink for mealtime and for entertaining.

A smooth, palatable, pleasing drink like Blackberry Cordial was as important as living itself—and Mother Putnam was THE preferred brand. This treasured recipe—a combination of fresh blackberries and other ingredients properly blended—was hailed then as a drink that would 'live forever'.

This recipe was handed down to us and we'd like you to TRY this famous drink soon. It has been produced with exacting care, using the same secret formula originated in 1890.

When you try it—sip slowly. You'll enjoy the fine flavor and rich taste of fresh blackberries.

Serve Mother Putnam Blackberry Cordial straight, in mixed drinks, as a frappe or in many other combinations. It'll make an instant hit with you. You'll agree there has been NOTHING LIKE IT SINCE 1890.

Actor's Life a Crap Game, Gamble to Get Rich or Poor

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—How to shoot Jane Russell and Marilyn Monroe—with a camera. That's our problem for today.

These two outstanding glamor dolls start work together this week in a modernized film version of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." They possess two of the most photographed frames in history, but until now they have generally posed alone. That presents the problem of how to shoot them together.

I discussed the issue with Gene Kornman, who has been photographing glamor girls at 20th-Fox for 20 years. He said he didn't anticipate much trouble.

"Don't underestimate Marilyn's intelligence," remarked the photographer. "She's a smart gal when it comes to posing, and she's easy to get along with too. From what I hear, Jane is a nice gal too. And since she has been in the business longer, she can and probably will give some pointers to Marilyn.

"I think I'll use the same technique I used when Betty Grable and June Haver were making 'The Dolly Sisters.' I always went to Betty first, since she was the bigger star. If she said she was too tired or busy, I asked June to pose. And sure enough, when Betty looked out and saw June posing for pictures, she'd come out of her room and volunteer to work too.

"I had another technique. Whenever I had Betty in a picture with June, I always placed Betty on the left. Then the caption always put Betty Grable's name first."

Gene has lensed virtually every glamor girl on the 20th-Fox lot. He said that each one required a different technique.

"Marilyn Monroe is better when she closes her eyes just before the picture is snapped," he said. "She takes her time to get ready. Then when I give her the signal, she opens her eyes and blossoms out like a rose coming out of the bud.

"Jean Peters is a fast poser. She can be standing with a blank expression. When I get ready to shoot, she'll flash on the most expressive face I could ask for. I could photograph her all day and get a different expression each time. Once I asked her to imagine herself as a black widow spider. The result was terrific.

"Betty Grable is another one who can turn it on or off. She can be very tired at the end of a long sitting. But just before I click the shutter she turns on the brightest smile you ever saw. It goes away as soon as the picture is made.

"Susan Hayward likes to move into a pose. She snaps her head around and holds the position like a mannequin."

I asked Gene what time of day was best for photographing the glamor queens.

"For pure beauty, it's best to get them when they're fresh," he replied. "That means in the morning or early afternoon. But sexiness is a different matter. I found I get my sexiest shots of Monroe when she is a little bit tired. Her eyelids begin to droop, and her whole face looks languid."

His easiest subjects? Gene cited two: Loretta Young and Billie Dove.

"They are the most graceful women I have ever photographed," he said. "You didn't have to pose them. They naturally assumed the most beautiful pose."

Boy, 18, Convicted Of Murder, Ruled Sane, Now Must Die

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—Convicted of murdering a 15-year-old babysitter last August, Billy Rupp Jr., 18, has been adjudged sane at the time of the crime, making his death sentence mandatory.

Rupp, a Yorba Linda, Calif., beekeeper, was convicted last Thursday of the sex slaying of Ruby Ann Payne. The jury deliberated only 22 minutes yesterday on his insanity plea.

Rupp was accused of molesting and shooting the Payne girl while she was caring for the children of Perry Dyer, his employer.

Polar Plane Wings Toward Danish Base

Trail-Blazes First Flight Over Pole From US to Europe

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — A big airliner winged toward its Danish home today in the final lap of a trail-blazing commercial flight from the U. S. Pacific Coast across the polar top of the world to Europe.

The Scandinavian airlines system's "Arild Viking" took off at 6:58 a. m. Greenland time (4:58 a. m. CST) from the big U. S. Air Force base at Thule, North Greenland. Airlines officials said due to favorable weather conditions over Greenland and the North Atlantic, the plane might complete the 2,385 mile jump to Copenhagen by 9:30 p. m. (2:30 p. m. CST).

The flight is the first of two exploratory Los Angeles-to-Copenhagen runs which the airline hopes will be the prelude of the first commercial service over the polar route.

The big Douglas DC-6B had landed at the Thule base at 4:28 a. m. Greenland time (2:28 a. m. CST).

The Viking carried 22 passengers, a crew of 13, such arctic survival equipment as sleeping bags, skis, snowshoes, snow shovels and rifles, and 500 pounds of mail. Her operators hope to inaugurate regular commercial service on the top-of-the-world route between Los Angeles and Copenhagen soon.

The polar airliner touched down at the new 263-million-dollar air base — the first commercial airliner to use the big field—an hour ahead of schedule, after a 1,945-mile hop from Edmonton, Alta.

Flying time for the arctic jump was three minutes over seven hours. For the entire 5,852-mile trip, time in the air was estimated originally at 24½ hours.

Airline officials figured the plane would reach the Danish capital after the 2,385-mile jump from Thule about 10:30 p.m. (4:30 p.m. EST).

Yesterday, the big skyliner covered the 1,522 miles between Los Angeles and Edmonton in six hours and 46 minutes, taking off for Greenland after a refueling stop of almost two hours.

The flight's successful completion will make the Viking the first commercial airliner to fly from the West Coast of the United States to Europe over the north pole route. This route, giving the Pacific Coast its own gateway to Europe and making Los Angeles an overnight hop from Scandinavia, cuts 1,000 miles off the trip by way of New York.

The body is at the James Funeral Home in that city.

Eden Endorses India Plan on PW Deadlock

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden today endorsed an Indian plan to solve the prisoner of war deadlock in Korea.

In a speech to the U. N.'s 60-nation Political Committee, Eden called the plan a "timely and constructive way" to end the quarrel over prisoners and thus bring about a truce in Korea.

"We have been right," Eden declared, in insisting upon the principle of non-forcible repatriation of prisoners of war. However, he declared, when a resolution comes along which safeguards these principles while at the same time offering the hope of agreement with the other side, the U. N. ought not to be adamanet."

The British foreign secretary, fresh from a luncheon conference with President-elect Eisenhower, said it would be a "mistake to examine such a resolution too legalistically."

"I pray that this committee will agree on it," he concluded.

Circuit Court

Albert Dirck filed suit for divorce Wednesday from Maxine Dirck. They were married, June 15, 1945 and separated Sept. 27 1952. The plaintiff is represented by William F. Brown.

A divorce suit was filed for Lenora Graw Watring from Robert W. Watring. They were married, Feb. 24, 1947 and separated July 7, 1952. The plaintiff is asking for the custody of their three minor children. Mrs. Watring is represented by the law firm of Palmer and Palmer.

The suit for $16,000 against Mrs. Eleanor K. Goldman, as executrix of the Bert L. Goldman estate, by Beldner and Landres, Inc., of New York City, was dismissed in Circuit Court Thursday morning. The dismissal followed the filing of a stipulation by the plaintiff that the suit would be dropped upon payment of $200 by the defendant.

The original suit was filed in July, 1951, in which the plaintiff stated that it had not been paid for services rendered as merchandise buyer for Goldman, doing business as Burton's in Sedalia. It asked for judgment of $13,000, but a later suit for $300 was combined with it.

Police Court

Disturbance of the peace charges against Charles Lindsey, 1216 East Fifth, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith, 1218 East Fifth, were dismissed in police court by Judge R. L. Weinrich after a brief hearing. The Smiths first had Lindsey arrested and then Lindsey had the Smiths arrested.

Seven overtime parkers failed to appear in police court and their cash bonds of $1 each were ordered forfeited.

Harry Warrenbrock, Dresden, forfeited a $2 cash bond on a charge of improper parking.

Another Large Crowd Sees Playhouse Play

A large crowd attended the second performance of "Very Untruly Yours" presented Wednesday night by the Community Playhouse at the Smith - Cotton High School auditorium.

The play, directed by Mrs. Don Lamm Jr., was a comedy in which a number of new members of the club took several of the leading parts, doing a nice job on their first time with the Sedalia dramatic group.

The comedy presented many funny situations in a jail cell.

The next, and only other production to be presented during the 1952-53 season will be in the spring, when the comedy-drama "Claudia" will be given April 21 and 22.

Taxation Setup Explained In Full For Kiwanians

"Taxes From Assessment to Collection," was explained by Miss Hazel Palmer, Pettis County collector, to Sedalia Kiwanians at their meeting in Bothwell Hotel Thursday noon.

Miss Palmer reviewed the detailed operations of her office and the cooperative work of other county offices in preparing tax statements. She also called attention to the one cent increase in state tax and 6 per cent equalization increase for Pettis County by the state tax commission. She revealed that Pettis County's 1952 assessed valuation is $43,320,702.12 or an increase over 1951 of $1,700,631.12. Also the tax charge for this county in 1952 amounts to $1,289,612.26 plus $113,675.83 of back taxes, or a total of $1,403,288.09.

J. G. Crawford was program chairman.

Arthur Morgan announced that next week's meeting would be a joint one with the Optimist Club Tuesday noon, instead of Thursday, which is Thanksgiving Day.

President Walter Kennedy announced there would be a board of directors meeting in Bothwell Hotel Friday noon.

Guests were: Kiwanian R. B. Cole, Independence, now of Sedalia; Y. C. Shults, Springfield, with Guy Bailey and Dick Snow, with R. C. Maag.

Immunization Follow Ups Given Student Body

A follow-up immunization clinic was held at the Pettis County courthouse Thursday morning for school children. Of the 243 children present, most had returned for the second diphtheria - tetanus shot which completed their immunization series. A few were back for smallpox vaccinations.

In charge of the clinic were Mrs. Bettye Murrell, Sedalia school nurse, Mrs. Frances Hemphill of the district health office and a number of doctors volunteering from the Pettis County Medical Society.

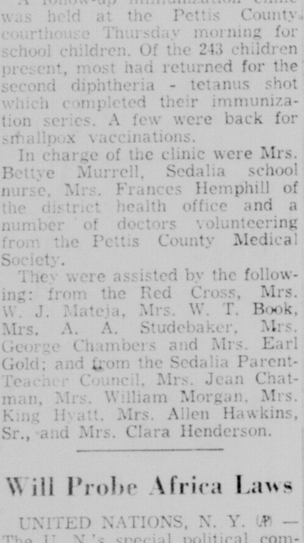

They were assisted by the following: from the Red Cross, Mrs. W. J. Mateja, Mrs. W. T. Book, Mrs. A. A. Studebaker, Mrs. George Chambers and Mrs. Earl Gold; and from the Sedalia Parent-Teacher Council, Mrs. Jean Chatman, Mrs. William Morgan, Mrs. King Hyatt, Mrs. Allen Hawkins, Sr., and Mrs. Clara Henderson.

Will Probe Africa Laws

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U. N.'s special political committee overrode South African opposition today and voted to set up a commission to investigate South Africa's racial segregation laws. The vote was 35 to two with 22 abstaining.

Indicted for Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Abram Flaxer, president of the United Public Workers Union which a Senate committee called Communist-dominated, was indicted for a second time today on contempt of Congress charges.

VERY "DOGGY"—"Nickie," pedigreed dachshound, models the very latest thing in canine adornment for dogs with wealthy owners. A rhinestone-studded collar and a black satin dog coat are just the thing for the "dog-about-town." Nickie was one of several doggy models who recently wagged their way through a fashion show held in a New York restaurant.

More Than 1,500 Youths Receive Diabetes Tests

More than 1500 students in Sedalia's public schools have been tested so far, and not one case of diabetes has been discovered, Mrs. Bettye Murrell, school nurse, reported happily Thursday morning.

But one of the children's parents was found to have a positive reaction to the test and was immediately notified and advised to see his family doctor. He had been unaware of his condition. About 15 parents were tested at school.

Tests were run at Smith - Cotton High School both Monday and Tuesday for 778 students. On Wednesday, Mrs. Murrell and her assistants visited six elementary schools in town and tested 724 children in the fifth, sixth and seventh grades of those schools.

Some 187 Smithton pupils were tested Tuesday, with no positive cases being found. Adults may make appointments for tests at the Smithton clinic by calling 38.

No school tests were made Thursday because of immunizations being performed at the county courthouse, but they will be continued Friday morning at the Hubbard grade and high schools and the three parochial schools, Sacred Heart High School, St. Joseph's School and St. Patrick's School. Mrs. Murrell will be in charge of the tests at the Hubbard schools. In charge at the parochial schools will be Mrs. Herbert Berlin, Mrs. Mary Fisher and Miss Ann Meyers.

In the meantime, adults may still receive diabetes tests at the public health office at Central Business College, 605 Massachusetts.

A total of 333 adults have been treated for diabetes to date at the public health office at Central Business College, 605 Massachusetts, but no positive results have been reported.

The office will remain open for tests until noon Saturday. The hours for Thursday and Friday are from 8:30 a. m. to 4:45 p. m.

Committee Wants Voting Machine Okay In Missouri

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — A special legislative committee recommended today that any city or county in Missouri be allowed to use voting machines.

At the same time the committee decided to recommend to the next legislature that Missouri's primary election date be moved from August to the second Tuesday in June. Also adopted in principle were recommendations for:

A "blanket" primary ballot listing all parties so a voter won't have to announce his party preference when he goes into the polling place.

A truly secret absentee ballot.

Uniform codes of election procedure and registration for the big urban areas with a separate code for outstate Missouri. This would include permanent registration in all counties over 100,000 and all cities over 5,000.

Standard sized precincts — Atop of 500 voters in the big city areas and 750 in outstate Missouri.

Uniform voter qualifications throughout the state and uniform poll closing times.

Some plan to permit the counting of absentee ballots on election day if possible, although this still has to be worked out.

The committee did not go into the possibility of a presidential preference primary, revision of the corrupt practices law, permitting 18-year-olds to vote, and city and school election laws.

Instead it will recommend these problems be studied by a new committee of the 1953 legislature.

River Basin Governors Will Meet In Museum

OMAHA (AP) — Missouri River basin governors, and others connected with basin water development, will be surrounded by "culture" when they meet here Dec. 1 and 2.

The meetings of the Missouri River State Committee and Missouri Basin Inter-Agency Committee will be held at Joslyn Memorial, Omaha's art museum and cultural center.

Theme of the inter-agency meeting will be: "Seven years of progress in the Missouri Basin."

An exhibit dealing with basin development, put on by the states and federal agencies involved, will be placed at Joslyn and opened to the public Nov. 29.

The states committee meets Monday, Dec. 1. It's the annual meeting of this group, made up of Missouri Basin governors and selected representatives of the various states.

The inter - agency committee, composed of governors and representatives of federal agencies participating in the Pick-Sloan program, will meet on Tuesday.

Playlet at Burns Chapel

The Missionary Circle of the Burns Chapel Church will give a playlet at the church Thursday night at 8 p. m. entitled "The Ten Strings." A sermonette on the same subject will be presented afterward by the Rev. W. L. Jackson.

Carthage Woman Held For Embezzlement At Water, Light Co.

JOPLIN (AP) — Mrs. Ella Davis, former office manager at the Carthage water and light plant, today pleaded guilty to a charge of embezzlement.

The woman, accused of embezzling $5,105.95 over a period of more than 11 years, waived preliminary hearing before a magistrate at Carthage and then came here to plead guilty before Circuit Judge Walter E. Bailey.

She was placed on probation for two years and sentence was suspended.

Mrs. Davis, who made no statement, has made restitution of the funds, the court was told. Judge Bailey, in placing the woman on probation, said he had taken into account her payment to the board of public works and her previous good character.

Lions, Guests Receive Data On Health Unit

The Sedalia Lions Club at its regular meeting, Wednesday noon had as its guests local physicians and ministers to hear Paul F. Rector of the State Board of Health speak on health units.

Rector in his talk explained the purpose of a county health unit. He spoke on the protection it offers to a community in the form of combating epidemics and service in general it renders toward better health.

He explained that the recent legislature passed House Bill 307 which provides for each county to vote a maximum one mill tax to be used for health purposes. This tax could be lower; everything depending on the financial needs. Rector also explained that a health unit is strictly non-political, governed by a board of trustees, elected by the people on a non-partisan basis.

Rector said there are 27 counties in Missouri which now have health units, 17 of which have been made possible by the recent legislation. He urged the people of Pettis County to hold an election and vote on the proposal so that such a program can be carried out here.

The speaker was introduced by Ralph Carrell of the Carrell Clinical Laboratory, a guest of the Lions Club.

President E. B. Smith announced a special board of directors meeting for Monday night, Nov. 24.

Maryland U. Student Doesn't Think Courts Can Get Him on Bribery

WASHINGTON (AP) — Louis J. Glickfield, 21, who is charged with attempting to bribe a University of Maryland football player, says he doesn't think the courts can "do a thing" to him.

Glickfield, a junior at the university until expelled last month, is free in $2,500 bail after surrendering yesterday to Prince Georges, Md., County officials. He had made himself available to Washington police three weeks ago. By his action yesterday he waived extradition proceedings.

Glickfield, in an interview with the Washington Post, said:

"I don't think the courts can do a thing to me. I haven't committed a felony. But I have gotten plenty of punishment. My reputation is ruined. I doubt that I can get into another school."

Glickfield is accused specifically of offering center Tom Cosgrove $1,000 to "control the score" in Maryland's game with Louisiana Stat University Oct. 25 at College, Park, Md. Maryland won 34 to 6, a difference of 28 points as compared to the 21 points in pregame gambling odds.

Cushion Going Under US Iron Ore Supplies

NEW YORK (AP)—A costly cushion is going to be put under the nation's supply of domestic iron ore within five years.

It's intended to assure continuity of steel production.

The cushion consists of facilities to convert iron-bearing taconite rock, available in the Lake Superior district in almost inexhaustible quantities, into pellets of high-content ore to feed steel industry blast furnaes.

Two factors spur the move to utilize this rock: declining output of Minnesota's Mesabi ore that can be mined and shipped "as is" to the furnaces, and fear that flow of ore from prolific new fore.gn sources would be interrupted in a war emergency.

The swift expansion of steelmaking calls for more and more raw materials. Vast new sources of usable iron ore have been uncovered outside the borders of this country, boosting imports of ore by nearly 24 per cent last yyear.

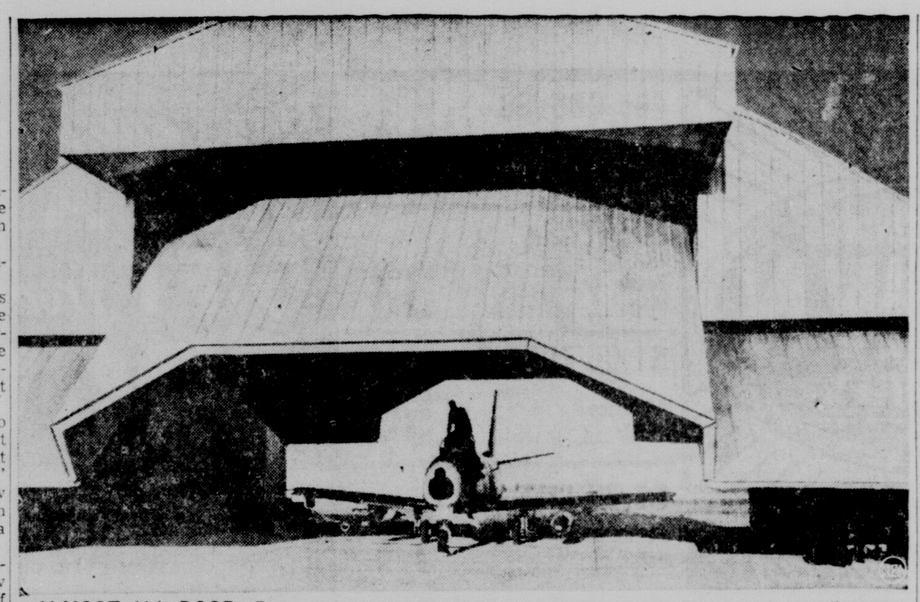

But steel companies don't want to have too many eggs in a foreign basket. They have been working for years on methods of using the iron contained in taconite, and some pilot operations have been in progress.

The timetable for enlarging this work is not too exact, but it is reported to envision some output on a commercial scale by 1955.

To accomplish this the teel companies will spend hundreds of millions of dollars.

Original cost estimates have been revised upward here, just as in other expansion plans of steel and industry generally. In the third quarter this year, Bethlehem Steel Corp. directors authorized nearly 25 million dollars just to cover cost increases on previously approved expansion projects.

Reserve Mining Corp., owned jointly by Republic Steel Corp. and Armco Steel Corp., is reported negotiating new financing that may run as high as 150 million dollars to pay for a large taconite facility being built near beaver bay on Lake Superior. The plant is to have an initial capacity of 2½ million tons a year.

ALMOST ALL DOOR—Front and rear walls of this jet plane hangar in Chicago are actually two huge doors which lift into the hangar's roof at the touch of a button. The rear of the building must be opened to allow escape of the exhaust blast from F-86 Saber jets which can be airborne in four minutes, for aerial defense of the city.

TURKEY 'N' GRAVY—Feathered with folding money, this handsome turkey will grace the board of Mr. and Mrs. Rollo G. Miller, of Gloversville, N. Y., on Thanksgiving day. The bird and $5000 were awarded to Miller for a suggestion for improving a machining operation at the General Electric Company in Schenectady, N. Y. It is the highest award ever to be made under the company's suggestion award system. From left: the Millers' son, Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Top CIO Officials Plan Secret Meet To Pick President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top officials of the CIO plan to get together secretly in New York Monday to try to select a successor to the late CIO President Philip Murray.

The meeting is to be held at headquarters of the CIO's Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union.

The CIO leaders hope they can succeed at the New York meetings in quietly settling on one of their number as a successor to Murray, who died Nov. 9 in San Francisco.

They want to iron this out in advance of the CIO convention which s scheduled to start a weeki later, on Dec. 1, n Atlantic City.

Allan S. Haywood, CIO executive vice president, is widely believed to have the inside track for Murray's job. But Walter Reuther, preray's job. But Walter Reuther, president of the Auto Workers Union, is another strong possiblity.

Any one of several other CIO union leaders may be selected as a compromise choice to avoid a pitched fight between rival factions.

Air Force Keeping F89 Despite Crashes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force is going to keep on flying its F89 Scorpion jet interceptor.

Roswell L. Gilpatric, Air Force under secretary, said yesterday there would be no cut in orders from Northrop Aircraft, Inc., producer of the speedy planes, because of a series of fatal crashes which have kept Scorpions grounded for two months.

He said wing weaknesses in earlier models would be corrected in planes now coming off the production line.

Lovett Favors Even Course For Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett says this country should find an "acceptable cruising speed" in our defense effort, instead of "costly ups and downs" dictated by Soviet propaganda.

Lovett spoke last night at an annual dinner of the National Institute of Social Sciences, which awarded him one of its gold medals for distinguished service to humanity.

In discussing the constant menace in the world today, Lovett said:

"We must proceed calmly and confidently to develop and maintain the necessary forces without regard to the particular propaganda line taken by the Soviet Union for tactical purposes at that particular moment."

Woman to Jail For Refusal To Testify

NEW YORK (AP) — A jail sentence has been imposed on Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, a defendant in the Communist conspiracy trial for contempt of court.

The penalty was ordered yesterday by Federal Judge Edward J. Dimock after Miss Flynn refused to answer questions involving names of persons not on trial.

The judge told Miss Flynn she could purge herself of two contempt citations by answering the questions before she completes her testimony. Miss Flynn, a Communits Party national committee member, said that as a matter of principle she doubted she would ever answer the questions.

She previously had told the court:

"It does not seem to me that in order to defend myself against criminal charges I must become an informer and a stool pigeon."

The judge ordered Miss Flynn to be jailed for 30 days on each contempt citation, the sentences to run concurrently. he has been free in $10,000 bail.

When defense counsel pleaded that immediate imprisonment would interfere with her defense, the judge postponed thesserving of sentence until she completes her testmony. She had been on the witness stand for 26 days in the seven-month-old trial.

She is one of 13 second-string Communist leaders on trial on charge of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Miss Flynn, who is acting as a defense attorney in the case, told the court she was standing on constitutional rights in refusing to answer questions about alleged Communist activities of non-defendants.

New Trial Soon Over GI Who Fell Asleep

Ft. Meade, Md. (AP)—The Army said today it will start a new trial "in the next few days" for Pfc. Warren McConnell, 21-year-old soldier from Alloway, N.J., who was previously sentenced to 10 years at hard labor for going to sleep on his post in Korea.

The previous conviction and sentence was set aside by the Court of Military Appeals in Washington.

McConnell was accused of going to sleep Nov. 14, 1951, at his post on a main line of resistence held by the 7th Division and was tried by a 7th Division general court martial in Korea Dec. 10, 1951.

He also was sentenced to a dishonorable discharge and the forfeiture of all his pay allowances.

McConnell is now under restrictions here and his case in the hands of Second Army headquarters at Ft. Meade. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McConnell of Alloway.

Little Evidence That Newspapers Caused Ike Election

DENVER (AP) — There is little evidence that newspapers were responsible for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's election, Palmer Hoyt, editor and publisher of the Denver Post, said today.

In a speech prepared as the keynote of the 33rd convention of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity, Hoyt said:

"To have certain people laying the blame for the Democratic defeat at the door of newspapers may be a subject of some satisfaction for publishers who editorially supported Mr. Eisenhower, but among ourselves we must admit that the evidence doesn't quite support the claim.

"Neither the record nor the critics are consistent with the facts, and we might as well face it even though to do so is to admit we wish such were not the case."

The fact that Democrats won the five preceding presidential elec - tions although the bulk of the press favored Republicans, Hoyt said, "is the most eloquent proof of the fairness of the American press as a whole."

Call for Warning On Bank Robbery Proves Just Prank

CARTHAGE, Mo. (AP) — An investigation of a false warning that the Bank of Carthage was to be held up has proved it to be a youthful prank.

A telephoned warning to the bank that it was to be held up a week ago resulted in elaborate preparations to prevent it. Police authorities from the sheriff's office, city police, state highway patrol and FBI were on hand, but nothing happened.

Sheriff George Hickam said Wednesday an investigation showed the hoax was the work of two youngsters.

He said the youths were playing a game of drop the dart. The dart fell on a telephone number of the Bank of Carthage. So the youths called and gave the bank the sinister warning.

Archeologists estimate that the date at which Joshua destroyed Jericho was about 1200 B. C., says the National Geographic Society.

Soviet Warns UN Not To Serve Imperialists

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet magazine New Times today warned the Western Powers that in considering a successor to Trygve Lie as U. N. secretary general they must steer clear of attempts "to put the U. N. in the service of the imperialist interests of the Atlantic bloc."

IKF this is not kept in mind, the New Times added, the result will be "sad." Any such Western efforts are "destined to fail," it declared.

A Democrat class ad will do it. Phone 1000.

Army Mix-Up Of Brothers Settles Down

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — Official papers on file at the Army's Ft. Custer say Pvt. William John Tilley is being held in the guardhouse on charges of going AWOL.

But William, 22, is at his Detroit home attending to a concrete contracting business, while his 19-year-old brother Joseph sits in the guardhouse.

That is as it should be, Army officers ruled yesterday, because it was Joseph who deserted last September. William was discharged in 1946, only the Army thought then he was Robert Tilley.

The mixup goes back to the war year of 1944, when 14-year-old William Tilley wanted to get into action. He was too young, so he assumed the identity of his brother Robert, who had been dead several years.

William (or Robert) joined up and served two years before being honorably discharged. He was married and the father of a son when his draft summons arrived in June.

At that point younger brother Joseph decided to help out and went into the Army as William. Three months later, officers said, he decided he didn't like Army life and returned home to become Joseph again.

So when military police went to Detroit last night to arrest William for being AWOL, it was Joseph they brought back with them.

Officers at the fort decided Joseph should take the punishment for desertion. They didn't say whether any action would be taken against William for using false identification when he enlisted.

But there was a strong possibility that eventually the whole tangle might be sent to the Pentagon for a final ruling.

Dr. Brady Denies Statements Feurig Attributed to Him

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Dr. Thomas A. Brady, vice president of the University of Missouri, denied yesterday that statements attributed to him by Dr. James S. Feurig were true.

Dr. Feurig, University of Missouri Student Health Service physician, submitted his resignation Tuesday and urged a board of medical men be given an opportunity to investigate what he called "flagrant breaches of medical ethics" in conduct of the service.

Dr. Brady denied he had told Dr. Feurig that there had been trouble in the institution's medical services for 20 years and that he hadn't been able to find out what the trouble was.

"I categorically deny that I told Dr. Feurig any of those things," Dr. Brady said.

Film Official Dies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Isaac E. Chadwick, president of the Independent Motion Picture Producers and distributors Association since 1924, died yesterday of a heart attack. He was 68.

Chadwick joined the film industry in 1910. He was born in London and was graduated from Cornell University. At one time he headed his own film company in Hollywood.

HUMAN CANVAS—Eva Fischer 24-year-old Yugoslav artist, has started a new fashion fad in Rome. Using a paint which resists soap and water for at least a week, she executes modernistic sketches on the backs of her pretty clients. The young woman, above, is having "The Man of Her Life" sketched on her shoulders, for all to see when she wears evening dress.

Court Martial Army Censor Over a Book

Ft. Meade, Md. (AP) — Lt. Col. Melvin B. Voorhees, Army censor in Korea accused of writing a book that wasn't censored, will be court martialed here.

Second Army headquarters announced yesterday that it would push charges against Voorhees for his book, "Korean Tales," which, in his own words "took a slap at a large part of the correspondents corps, which I felt was violating security and endangering lives."

Voorhees is charged with failing to submit a manuscript of his book to the Department of Army for review and disregarding the order of his commanding officer, to withdraw the book from publication.

The charges were filed by Gen. Joseph Swing, commander of the Sixth Army on the West Coast but the investigation was switched here so Gen. Swing would not have to act as both prosecutor and judge.

Voorhees said his book, published Armistice Day, ran into a "one-general barrier" in the person of Brig. Gen. Frank Dorn, deputy information officer at the Pentagon in Washington. Voorhees contends Dorn opposed the book because "he said I had no right to write a story which reflected against Gen. MacArthur."

Gen. Dorn denied this. He and his staff spent three days going over the book with Voorhees and ordering changes in "certain parts that were not suitable," Dorn said.

No date has been set for the court martial but it will be held "in the near future."

Voorhees is a former editor of the Tacoma, Wash., Times and has served with the Army 10 years as a reserve officer. During the period covered by his book he was chief censor for the Eighth Army in Korea.

NEW PRESIDENT'S AIDE?—Brig.-Gen. John H. Michaelis, 38, above, has been mentioned by Pentagon officials as being a prominent candidate for the position of White House Military Aide, when President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower takes office. Michaelis, Korean war veteran, at present is commandant of the West Point Cadet Corps.

GOP Win Not Demand To Cut Down On Health Activities Says Truman

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican victory at the polls, President Truman says, was no mandate to the government to cut down on its public health activities.

Truman said President-elect Eisenhower's administration will find itself "far behind the times" if it tries to stop what he called the social and economic progress made under the Democrats.

And, in defense against what he termed politically inspired attacks on his public health program, he declared that "anyone who interprets the election as a mandate to stop the efforts we have been making for social and economic progress is blind to history."

Truman's defense of his record, and call for further government action in the controversial field of public health, came during a speech delivered last night to the Association of Military Surgeons.

Truman also rapped Congress for "lost progress" in the health field. Current shortages of doctors and nurses have not been met, he said, "despite repeated efforts to persuade the Congress to adopt a program of federal aid to medical education."

Cat Is Retired After Five Years as Taster

MELTON MOWBRAY, England (AP)—Whiskers has retired after five loyal years as the chief taster in an animal food factory and had a medal hung around his neck.

One factory executive said of the ginger cat: "He had a better personality than his junior assistants. If whiskers turned away in distaste from a new product, we had to scrap it."

Morse Says War Won't Be Settled Over In Korea

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, commenting on President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's proposed inspection trip to Korea, says, "You're not going to settle that Korean War in Korea."

Morse, who bolted the Republican party and withdrew his support from Eisenhower in the November election, made that comment in a speech last night to a Pittsburgh Israel bond drive dinner. He added:

"You're not going to perform any miracles by any visitation of anyone to Korea. You're going to settle the Korean War in the United Nations—nowhere else. And you're going to do it by negotiating, not with Soviet Russia, but with your allies, for unity."

Morse said a "military state of mind in this country has gone too far in thinking that a third world war is inevitable." He declared:

"If you let the military group go unchecked, World War III will become inevitable."

The Oregon senator said America is losing friends because there's a "growing wave of economic isolation sweeping the country."

During the next few weeks, Morse said, he intends to "document sources of some of the war danger in high places."

A Democrat class ad will do it.

Just Says 'No' Three Times to Hold-up Man And He Leaves at Once

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Mrs. Robert Field of near Belleville told police she discouraged a would-be holdup man simply by answering "no" to three questions.

Mrs. Field said the man knocked at her door and when she greeted him he asked:

"Does Polske live here?"

"No," said Mrs. Field.

Her answer was the same when he asked if her husband was home.

Then he pulled out a revolver and asked if she had any money.

"No," said Mrs. Field.

The man turned away, got into a parked car and left.

"He was very polite and considerate," said Mrs. Field.

Nold-Lingle Co-Captains Of '52 Tigers

18 to Get Varsity; 15 Will Receive 'B' Team Letters

Earl Nold and David Lingle, Seniors at Smith-Cotton High School have been elected as the Co-Captains of the 1952 Tiger football team it was announced today by Coach Ralph "Stub" Dow who also announced the naming of those to receive School Letters. Eighteen Tigermen are to receive Varsity letters while 15 boys are to receive the "B" Team letter.

Nold who played center and Lingle who shifted in the backfield from right halfback, to fullback and played some quarterbacking, were the backbone of the team this season. Their leadership through the season proved valuable to the team in keeping them going in spite of the set backs they experienced during the year.

Coach Dow in naming his Varsity lettermen pointed out that with the exception of three Seniors and three Sophomores there are twelve Juniors. Those to receive the Varsity letters are: Nold, Lingle and Benji Harned. Seniors: Richard "Buck" Bennett, Bobby Case, and Gilbert Roberts, the Sophomores; Juniors getting the honor are Lanny Couch, Bennie Neal, Ernie Deuel, Phil Wulff, Larry Lynch, Darrell Ford, Marvin Bohn, Jimmie Schmitt, Benny Walter, Melvin Jones, Jody Riene and Elroy Burton.

"B" Team letters go to three Sophomores and 12 Freshmen. They are: Lloyd Lane, Robert Morgan, Johnny Burns, Sophomores; Donald Barbour, Walter Kennon, Bob Austin, Leslie Griffin, Michael Wertz, Rudd Van Dyne, Charles Van Dyne, John Brummet, Tony Noland, John Fowler, Donnie Austin, Bill Wingfield.

The Letters are to be awarded at the annual Achievement Assembly later this school year.

Defensive Teams Lead As Top Teams

NEW YORK (AP)—Football fans who have been grieving about the over-emphasis on offense in football can take heart today by comparing the list of four unbeaten teams and the best teams on defense.

Here's what they'll find:

Michigan State, top ranked team in the country, has the best defense against rushing defense with an average of 87.3 yards per game.

Georgia Tech, No. 2, has the best total defense against both rushing and passing with a figure of 166.8 yards per game.

UCLA and Southern California, ranked third and fourth respectively, are tops, with Oklahoma, in pass interceptions and also have yielded the fewest points per game.

The big four also do well scoring points, of course, but it's more four major unbeaten teams happen to be among the best in restraining the other club from moving that ball.

The fans crowding Los Angeles Coliseum and watching over their television sets will see two crack pass defenses in Saturday's UCLA-Southern California duel. UCLA has picked off 35 opposition passes, tops in the country, and USC's stalwart defensive platoon has grabbed 25 for a tie with Oklahoma for second. Southern California, incidentally, has scored seven of its 33 touchdowns on pass interceptions.

Virginia leads the pass defenders in yardage, however, with a yield of only 50.6 yards per game.

When it comes to scoring, Southern Cal has given up 3.3 points per game and UCLA 5.1. Georgia Tech, the only team which has yet to yield a touchdown on a pass, has a 4.8 average.

Although Des Koch of Southern California has the best individual punting average in the country, the best team average per game belongs to Colorado with 42.8. That's exactly a yard better than Southern Cal's 41.8.

Houston is sixth in the country in total defense against both rushing and passing with an average of 204.9 yards per game. In rushing defense, Houston ranks fifth with an average of 101.8 yards per game.

Independent Cage League Organized For Central Mo.

The Central Missouri Independent Basketball League has been organized with two Sedalia teams being members, the Town and Country Sportsmen and the Sedalia Moose Lodge, both who have gotten off to victories in the first week of play.

The Moose defeated Otterville last Monday while the Sportemen won over the Lake of the Ozarks Wednesday night.

Friday night the third game of the league schedule calls for Versailles meeting Russellville at the latter court.

The second week schedule will be: Lake of the Ozarks at Stover, Monday; Sportsmen at Otterville, Wednesday; and Russellville vs. Moose Club at Sedalia Friday night.

The complete league schedule is being figured out and will be released within a few days.

Jesse Russell Paces Winners With 27--

Blackburn Girls Win Again To Gain Nelson Semi-Finals

Blackburn's girl cage team served notice on all other entries Wednesday night that it intended to be around when the championship trophies are passed out in the Nelson Invitational Tournament.

Paced by Jesse Russell, who scored 27 points, Blackburn led four teams in to the fourth round with a 46-33 victory over Sweet Springs for its second triumph of the tourney. Miss Russell's effort included 17 free-throws to dominate the game's scoring. Patsy Burfind scored 15 times for Sweet Springs in this tilt, the second on the night's card. The victory puts Blackburn in the winner's semi-final round.

Bunceton's girls opened the evening's play with a well-earned 37-26 victory over Santa Fe in a contest which saw the winners steadily pull-away. They led by one point at the end of the first quarter; by three at the half; built it to six at the three-quarter pole; and won going away. It was the first tourney contest for both teams.

Donna Alexander was the top point-maker with 15 for the winners while Fancler hid 14 times for the losers.

Boys finally got their inning in the night's third contest, with Nelson handing Pilot Grove its second loss of the meet by a score of 67-45.

Bob Hughes and Max Wales unveiled a brilliant 1-2 scoring punch which netted them 26 and 24 points respectively to bury Pilot Grove under an avalanche of baskets. The victory gives a 1-1 record in the tournament.

Tina's girls eliminated Malta Bend in the last contest on the card, a 42-41 thriller. This contest, which evens Tina's record, featured the shooting ability of Tina's Shirley Kerns, who scored 23 times—15 from the free throw line. Lois Shelnutt was high for Malta Bend with 11 .

Thursday night's card opens with Bogart (0-1) against Santa Fe (0-1) in a 5:30 p. m. girl's contest; follows with Tina (1-1) against Jamestown (0-1) at 6:50, a girls game; features Tina (0-1) against Blackburn (0-1) in a 8:10 boys affair; and winds-up with Nelson (1-0) against Concordia (1-0) at 9:30 in a girls winner's bracket contest.

Willie Pep Wins First 'Comeback' Bout With Chavez

ST. LOUIS, (AP) — A confident, crafty Willie Pep, his latest "comeback" opponent listed as a victim, says he'll fight anyone, anytime to gain another crack at winning back his featherweight crown from Sandy Saddler.

The bobbing veteran put on his usual show last night to win a unanimous, 10-round decision from Fabella Chavez, a youngster from Hollywood, Calif. Both weighed 129 pounds.

It was just a matter of Pep craftiness—with some nice help from a jabbing left and a head-snapping right—that gave the Hartford, Conn., ex-champ the clear-cut victory. Judges Howard Hess and Fred Connell, and referee Ray Palmer saw the fight the same way. Each gave it to the 30-year-old Pep, 58-42.

But while Pep considered the fight a success against "a tough kid," the promoters were less enthused with the outcome at the gate. A crowd of 2,491, just a drop in the 15,000-seat arena bucket, paid a bare $5,593.50 to see the nationally and locally televised bout in person.

That's quite a step down from the $56,000 gate paid when a more youthful Pep cut down Charley Riley here some time back.

Pep was unmarked, while Chavez suffered a slight cut at the edge of his left eye.

After counting Chavez as his ninth victim in 10 comeback fights, Pep figures he's as good as anyone in his weight. He just wants to stay that way until Saddler, who lifted Willie's crown and defeated him in three of four fights, gets out of the Army. Then Pep hopes for another crack at the title.

"I don't care who I fight," said Pep. "Anyone they match me against. I'm slower—after all, you can't be fast all your life—but I've learned a lot."

Baptist Boys Team In First Game Tonight

The East Sedalia Baptist boys basketball team plays its first game of the season tonight, meeting the All-Stars of Smith-Cotton High. The game will be on the Whittier court at 7:30 o'clock.

Balloons, sent up as high as 100,000 feet to study cosmic rays, often are reported as flying saucers.

Sedalians Receive Central College Football Letters

Two Sedalians have been awarded Varsity Football letters at Central College for the past season. Dennis Semkin and Jim Phelps, former Smith-Cotton Tigers were among 24 players named by Coach Orval Stiegeneier of the Central Eagles.

The announcement of the awards was made by Dr. Ralph L. Woodward, president of Central College.

Sports Roundup---

Hold Your Sides and Read About Groaners In Garden

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Let us all enjoy a big, hearty laugh at the expense of the rasslers, those funny, funny fellows who put on their rib-tickling acts night after night around the country and are never, of course, taken seriously by anyone who got beyond the fourth grade.

They had the nerve to take over that gleaming citadel of sport, Madison Square Garden, the other night, and you'll hold your sides when we tell you what happened. It was a cinch to happen, because there isn't a more hep crowd of sports fans in the whole world than right here in the nation's greatest city.

Well, these groaners, better than a ton of the grandest names in the business, drew only 18,357 paid admissions, including 205-odd standees, before the fire department locked and barred the doors. Another 5,000 were left out in the street, mad clean through. The receipts were $57,396.

If you'll leave off laughing for a moment, we will add that the Garden now thinks rasslers are more wonderful even than the horse show, if slightly less social, and has invited them to hurry back again on Jan. 5 and at frequent intervals thereafter.

The grapplers, from all accounts, gave their big town audience the works, as fine and conscientious a performance as could be seen in Windblown, Idaho, or anywhere. One of them got tangled up in the ropes and was kicked half to death before the referee could rescue him. A 241-pounder was turned blue by what a knowing critic described as a double frankfurter twist. It was strictly big time.

It's been, roughly, 20 years since the noble science enjoyed its last big prosperity here. Back in 1931-32, when the apple sellers stood in every block, Jim Londos, the Golden Greek," packed them into the Garden week after week and the police had to fight off the overflow.

Then all of a sudden something happened. The crowds quit coming, and Jim and all his colorful fellows disappeared into the shadows.

It has long been taken for granted that rassling would never come back to the Garden. The customers of another generation might have fallen for the histrionics of the big, puffing fellows, but their sons had long since caught wise. It goes to show how wrong you can be.

Gremlins Take Step Nearer Warsaw Title

Sacred Heart's steadily-improving Gremlins slammed their way into the semi-finals of the Warsaw Invitational Tournament Wednesday night with a convincing 62-43 victory over the affair's defending champion, Cross Timbers.

Team balance and a fast start were the main ingredients in the red and white's winning recipe. Jim Fall and Dick Stohr again were the principal point-makers with 15 each, but they received invaluable aid from team-mates John Seifner and Bob Bennett, each of whom chipped-in 12. The other Gremlin starter, Pat Ryan, played his usual steady floor game and got things rolling by counting six times in the first quarter.

Apparently the Sedalia club's flashy opening took all the starch out of Cross Timbers, for they never cut the margin to less than 15 points at the end of any quarter.

Each of the Sedalia heavy scorers enjoyed at least one hot quarter. Stohr and Bennett also scored six times in the first period: Fall hit nine times in the Second: Stohr added six in the third; and Seifner wound things up with an eight-point effort.

For the losing Cardinals there is little to be said, except hearty praise for Hersel Clark, their fine center, who scored 20 points to take the contest's high-point honors.

The box score:

Whitey Ford, Yankee Hurler, Out of Army

FORT MONMOUTH, N. J. (AP)—Edward "Whitey" Ford, the rookie pitcher who had a big hand in the New York Yankees' 1950 pennant push, was mustered out of the Army yesterday.

Ford won nine straight games down the stretch in 1950 and then added a world series triumph to his record. He figures to give the Yankees quite a boost in their quest for a record - breaking fifth straight pennant. Manager Casey Stengel is expected to use him as a starter, working him in rotation with Vic Raschi, Ed Lopat and Allie Reynolds.

T&C To Hughesville For Game Friday Night

The Town and Country Sportsmen will go to Hughesville Friday night for a game with that town's men's team. The local players will leave from the Meadow Gold parking lot at 6:30 o'clock.

Big 7 Ruling Over Player Limit Comes Under Fire at IS

AMES, Ia. (AP)—The Big Seven's regulation limiting football traveling squads to 36 players was under fire again today.

Coach Abe Stuber of Iowa State says he'll plug for an increase in the number of players at the conference's football coaches meeting at Lincoln Dec. 6.

Last year the coaches proposed an increase but faculty representatives voted it down.

Stuber declared yesterday:

"In this present day of two platoons you start 22 men—11 on offense and 11 on defense. At first this seems ample enough but after a second look you find you have only 14 43serves.

"This is to the home team's advantage. The home team in the Big Seven usually suits up 50 to 55 players and can play them all."

The Iowa State coach any number above 36 on a traveling squad would help a lot.

Announce Blackout On News for Ike Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department announced today there will be an official news blackout during Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's visit to Korea.

For security reasons, it said, there will be no authorization for publication of news while he is in Korea and no schedule will be publicly announced.

Secretary of Defense Lovett said the arrangements have the approva of the president-elect.

Two Local Teams Join Independent Cage Loop

The Sedalia T & C Sportsmen and the Sedalia Moose Club basketball teams are among the seven teams included in the Central Missouri Independent Basketball League which was organized recently at Versailles.

The other five teams are Otterville, the Lake Ozarks Lakers, Versailles, Russellville and Stover. The Jefferson Redbirds may join later, according to Pete Curl, coach at Versailles.

A round-hobin schedule has been set up for 14 weeks, ending the week of Feb. 21 and beginning this week. The first game between Otterville and the Moose Club was played Monday night, with the Moose scoring a 73-60 win.

Wednesday night the Lake Ozark Lakers played the Sedalia Sportsmen at Horace Mann School at 8 p. m. Versailles will play at Russellville Friday.

Managers for the seven teams are as follows: Stover, Nelson Martens; Lake Ozark Lakers, Arthur Porter; Sedalia Sportsmen, Dave Miller; Versailles, John Caine; Russellville, E. M. Eberhart; Otterville, M. E. Burford; and Sedalia Moose Club, Bud Michaelis.

A Democrat class ad will do it. Phone 1000.

Pacific Coast League Crown Is Game Stake

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The football teams at Southern California and UCLA eased down a bit in workouts today and, barring the unforeseen, will go into their Pacific Coast Conference championship game in Memorial Coliseum Saturday in near-perfect condition.

The possibility that Southern California's great tackle, Bob Van Doren, may not be able to play cast a pall of gloom in the Trojan camp. Dr. Willis L. Jacobus, team physician, said Van Doren has not progressed satisfactorily from a mild concussion suffered in last week's game against Washington.

"It is quite doubtful whether he will be ready by saturday," said Dr. Jacobus. X-rays and brain wave tests showed no serious injury, but the big defensive tackle has been complaining of headaches all week.

The battle, with the winner heading on to Pasadena and the Rose Bowl engagement with the Big Ten representative, still shapes up as an even struggle between a pair of teams unbowed and united in eight games apiece.

If either has an advantage, it is Southern California's greater reserve strength.

The UCLA coach, Red Sanders, while conceding nothing to the Trojans, either on offensive or defense, did admit this:

"Well, they do have more football players than we do."

An injury in the game to one of Sanders' starters, say halfback Paul Cameron or blocking back Lewis Williams, or linebacker Donn Moomaw, would work an extreme hardship.

Trojan coach Jess Hill conceicably would not be harmed too much by injuries. There isn't much to choose between his first and second platoons on either offense or defense.

One of Hill's problems, it would appear, has been deciding which of his various combinations in the backfield might be the most effective. He has about five tailbacks, headed by Jimmy Sears.

The game, to be witnessed by millions of television fans and a sellout crowd of 101,043 on the scene, will feature a duel between 167-pound Sears, no. 32 for the teeviewers, and rangy, 180-pound Cameron, no. 34.

Cameron has completed 30 out of 80 throws for 429 yards and eight touchdowns, with three interceptions. He has gained 150 yards in the 60 times he's run with the ball.

Sears has completed 30 out of 80 throws for 528 yards and seven touchdowns, and four have been intercepted. He has a rushing gain of 298 yards in 103 tries.

Air Force Will Aid Search for Hunters Stranded In Snow

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Air Force personnel and civilians planned a coordinated air-ground effort today to locate hunters stranded by deep snows in northern Arizona.

Five planes from William Air Force Base were poised to begin a systematic search of the rugged Mogollon Rim country where an estimated 100 to 300 hunters may still be in difficulty.

The planes will be controlled by a ground party that established a base camp under the rim near Young, Ariz., last night. The ground group planned to ascend the 3,000 foot high wall of mountains that cuts across northeastern Arizona, and open a secondary road that spans the length of the rough plateau at the top.

WANT A RIDE?—In northern Italy, where everyone rides a bicycle, anyone walking draws a crowd. Curious cyclists followed Claude Jubert as he heeled-and-toed to victory in a 100-kilometer marathon at Calolziocorte. The French bricklayer defeated 84 international entrants for his third consecutive triumph in one of Europe's top walking events. (NEA)

West Beats East as Sauer Is Picked Most Valuable

NEW YORK (AP) — Hank Sauer's narrow victory over Robin Roberts and Joe Black in the three - way battle for the National League's most valuable player award was a triumph of the West over the East. While the eastern writers were splitting their choice between Roberts and Black, the western scribes went solid for Sauer. As a result, the Chicago Cub outfielder nosed out Roberts by 15 points and Black by 18.

For whatever significance it may have, Sauer, the league's slugging king, experienced his poorest month in September when he batted .213, hit only three home runs and drove in only seven runs in seventy-five times at home plate. On the other hand, the final month of the season was the best for Roberts. The ace Philadelphia right-hander, biggest winner in the majors with 28, started seven games in September, completed and won all of them.

Incidentally, June was the most productive month for Sauer in the home run department while it was the worst for Roberts. Hammering Hank swatted 10 of his 37 homeruns in June, more than in any other month. Roberts, on the other hand, lost three and won three in June. Three was the most he lost in a single month. He also failed to finish three consecutive starts. Roberts failed to finish only seven of his 37 starts all season and completed 14 of his last 15 starts.

The Cleveland Indians were supposed to have had the best pitching staff in the American League last season, yet Bob Lemon, Early Wynn, Mike Garcia, Bob Feller and company couldn't compare with the New York Yankee hurling in doubleheaders. The Indians won both games eight times, split eight times and lost both games five times for a record of 24 - 18, a .517 percentage. The Yankees won both games 10 times, split nine times and lost both games only once for a 29 - 11 record, a .725 percentage.

Sauer Called Most Valuable Of Nationals

NEW YORK (AP) — Hank Sauer, the rags to riches outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, today was named the Most Valuable Player in the National League for the 1952 by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

The selection of the 33-year-old Chicago slugger came as a surprise to many as Sauer slumped badly during the last month of the season following a brilliant start.

Sauer won his circuit's highest honor by a narrow margin over Robin Roberts, the graceful right-hander of the Philadelphia Phillies, and Joe Black, the rookie relief expert of the pennant-winning Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Chicago star, whose climb to major league stardom was a tortuous path, collected 226 points out of a possible 336. Roberts, who won more games than any other pitcher, 28, finished second with 211 points. Black, who made Brooklyn's entry into the World Series possible, was third with 208.

Sauer, a 6-foot-4, 200-pound bruiser, ran into a terrible slump in September. He hit only three homers, drove in seven runs and collected 16 hits in 75 times at bat.

Despite this poor showing the Cub cleanup hitter wound up tied for league home run honors with Pittsburgh's perennial champion, Ralph Kiner, at 37 each. He also led the loop in runs batted in with 121, the highest of his major league career, and batted .270.

Only other players to poll 100 or more votes were Hoyt Wilhelm, the rookie relief specialist of the New York Giants, and Stan Musial.

Rounding out the top 10 were, Enos Slaughter, St. Louis, 92 points Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn, 31 points; Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider, Brooklyn, 29 points each; and Roy Campanella, Brooklyn, and Red Schoendienst, St. Louis, 25 points each.

Sooners Set To Drop Bowl Bids and Talk

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma's brief flirtation with post - season football appeared to be a dead affair today with bowl fever cooled by the team, university president and regents chairman.

The formal end to the strange episode was expected to come today the same way it started—at a meeting of the board of regents.

The official attitude was that a New Year's Day game, like the Orange Bowl which had an invitation ready, would be nice—

But not at the price of disciplinary action by the Big Seven conference for violating its ban on post-season athletics, or severing ties with the loop altogether.

The 24-hour bowl binge, touched off by a student demonstration Tuesday night, reached its climax yesterday when the decision was dumped into the player's laps.

The Sooners, No. 5 in the AP poll, voted to accept a bowl bid but only if the Big Seven relaxed its restrictions, which it refused to do a week ago.

Players balked at taking action which would jeopardize, or even end relations with the conference, and thus have far-reaching effect on every school sport.

And so Eddie Crowder, the slick split-T quarterback talking for the team, executed a neat verbal handoff to the regents, who tossed the ball in the first place by voting secretly to permit a bowl trip if Dr. George L. Cross and the team approved.

With the player decision, however, Dr. Cross—who set the Big Seven on its ear Tuesday night in putting a bowl bid up to the team—said he saw no need for further action.

Claassen Picks KU Over Tigers

NEW YORK (AP)—There were 21 fumbles in the recent Purdue-Notre Dame game, there were 19 in the Notre Dame-Oklahoma contest, and there were almost as many in the Notre Dame-Michigan State game. But there were only 12 fumbles in last week's selections.

Thirty-nine picks were correct for an average of .765. So here come this week's selections.

UCLA over Southern California: Paul Cameron is healthy and just now coming into his own at a time when the two coast powers meet for the conference title and the Rose Bowl bid. Even the TV moguls knew this because back in August they picked this one as your home entertainment for Saturday afternoon.

Michigan State over Marquette: By a considerable edge.

Georgia Tech over Florida State. If this were a fight it would be ruled "No Contest."

Oklahoma over Nebraska: Bobby Reynolds has re - joined his Nebraska mates but it is doubtful if that is enough. The Sooners have not lost a Big Seven conference game since the baseball Yankees lost a world series.

Tennessee over Kentucky: The question isn't can Kentucky win? Instead, it is can Kentucky score?

Maryland over Alabama: Alabama to feel the full fury of Maryland's anger over that upset loss to Mississippi last Saturday.

Notre Dame over Iowa: The last two meetings of these two rivals ended in ties and don't be surprised if this one doesn't also.

Tulsa over Arkansas: After a hesitant start, Tulsa now is the free-wheeling outfit that September seers predicted.

Ohio State over Michigan: There is just a flicker of unrest among the Ohio State alumni. A victory over Michigan would halt it. It will be stomped out.

Wisconsin over Minnesota: They have taken the snaffles off Alan (The Horse) Ameche.

Duke over North Carolina: This could be the straw that would topple coach Carl Snavely out of his uneasy seat at North Carolina.

Finishing the others in a hurry:

Friday night

Utah State over Denver, George Washington over Richmond.

Saturday

East: Columbia over Brown, Villanova over Boston University, Bucknell over Delaware, Princeton over Dartmouth, Rutgers over New York University, Pittsburgh over Penn State, Syracuse over Fordham, Holy Cross over Temple, Yale over Harvard.

Midwest: Purdue over Indiana, Iowa State over Kansas State, Kansas over Missouri, Illinois over Northwestern, Oklahoma A & M over Washington State.

South: Auburn over Clemson, The Citadel over Davidson, Miami over Florida, LSU over Mississippi Southern, William & Mary over North Carolina State, Wake Forest over Furman, Virginia over Washington & Lee, South Carolina over West Virginia.

Southwest: Southern Methodist over Baylor, Texas Tech over Arizona, Rice over Texas Christian.

Far West: Colorado A & M over Brigham Young, New Mexico over Montana, California over Stanford.

Jim Hook Adds Last Chapter To Grid Career

COLUMBIA, Mo., (AP)—Unheralded Little Jim (Gabby) Hook will wind up his college football career Saturday as key man in Missouri's plans to upset the Kansas Jayhawks.

The 61st meeting of the Missourians and Jayhawks—one of the oldest rivalries west of the Mississippi—will be played at Columbia, Mo., beginning at 2 p. m. (est).

Coach Don Faurot brought Hook up from his B squad last year to quarterback the sputtering Tigers. And Gabby did right well in late season. He ran and passed for 319 yards in the last game although Kansas won 41-28.

A 168-pound senior from Lee's Summit, Mo., Hook started this season at quarterback then moved to left half in the sixth game. He's continued calling signals from left half.

Overshadowed by such Big Seven stars as Eddie Crowder, Buck McPhail, and Billy Vessels of Oklahoma and Charlie Hoag of Kansas, Hook nevertheless is the third leading ground gainer in the loop with 661 yards, has scored 5 touchdowns and completed 26 of 83 passes for 398 yards.

And most important of all, he hasn't missed a game since coming up to the varsty for any reason, playing two Saturdays this fall with a mask protecting a broken nose.

Hook does not have the physical equipment and the burning speed of a great back.

But as Faurot puts it:

"Gabby has less fake and speed, but gets by tacklers easier and faster than any backs I've coached."

The game will show any number of outstanding backs. For Kansas there'll be the still ailing Hoag, Galen Fiss, Gil Reich and Bob Brandeberry. Hook's chief aid is expected from Bill Rowekamp, Nick Carras and Tony Scardino.

A Missouri victory would give the Tigers undisputed second place in the final Big Seven standings, granting an Oklahoma victory over Nebraska, The Tigers have four victories and one loss in league play. Kansas, with a 4-2 conference mark, would earn a tie with Missouri for second place by winning.

Youngest of N. H. Governors Will Be 35 When He Takes Job

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—The youngest governor in the history of New Hampshire, Hugh Gregg, will be 35 when he takes office in January.

More people than ever before voted in New Hampshire the day Gregg led the Republican ticket in getting elected — he even ran ahead of Gen. Eisenhower.

The young attorney has been called the "all-American boy" by newsmen. He is handsome, comes from a well-to-do family, has a pretty wife and two attractive sons. He was a counter-intelligence agent in the Army during World War II and returned home to be elected his city's mayor.

When Gregg took over as mayor of industrial Nashua, the city seemed about finished as a center of high employment. But he, with aid from his father and a group of businessmen, organized the Nashua Foundation and attracted many out-of-state businesses to settle there.

After his term as mayor, Gregg was recalled to active Army duty. He served a year and a half and then resumed his private law practice.

He was persuaded to run for governor and won a smashing victory in the primary over three candidates, two of whom were older and more experienced in politics. One had served two terms as governor.

Gregg in action—on the speaker's stand or at a political rally—is a natural. His good looks are a help; he has great presence of mind and enthusiasm and is quick to turn a phrase.

In his platform he came out flatly for no sales or income taxes in the state. He promised to do what he could to get more industries into New Hampshire.

Gregg was graduated from Yale in 1939 and from Harvard Law School in 1942. He lives quietly with his wife and sons in Nashua, where he raises Newfoundland dogs. He neither smokes nor drinks.

Almost all countries require a certificate showing a recent vaccination against smallpox before permitting visitors to cross their borders.

Alabama is eighth among coal-producing states.

Senate Secretary May Quit After 44 Years On the Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Senate Leslie L. Biffle said today he is thinking of retiring after 44 years on Capitol Hill.

Biffle's job will be forfeited to the Republicans when they take over control of the Senate in January. Indications are that J. Mark Trice, present secretary to the minority, may be picked for the job.

Biffle, who is 63, told reporters he has no plans for the future except to take a long vacation.

There were indications, however, that the Democrats would ask him to stay on as director of their Policy Committee, or in some other post.

Lonely Boy Finds Brother

BUFFALO, N. Y., (AP)—Jerry Estes, the lonely boy in the Randolph Children's Home whose plaintive letter for some news of his parents touched the hearts of the Chicago Police Department, has found a brother in Buffalo.

An assist from an alert postman helped the brothers to get together by telephone Wednesday last night.

Jerry, now 15 years old, has been a pupil at the Randolph Children's Home since he was 7. He had heard that his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Estes, were living in Chicago.

So he wrote a letter to the Chicago police, asking them to please help him locate his parents.

Daniel W. Costello, a Buffalo postman, read a newspaper story about Jerry's letter. He remembered there was a family named Estes on his mail route.

The name was unusual, Costello reasoned, and the Estes on his route might know something about Jerry's father and mother.

So Costello took his information to the Buffalo police. Detectives contacted Douglas Estes, 29, Jerry's brother.

"Why, I haven't seen the boy since he was 3 years old," Douglas told detectives. Immediately, he telephoned Jerry at Randolph.

"The boy was almost in tears as he talked to his young brother," Detective Stanley Segit told reporters. "It made us feel good just to listen to the conversation."

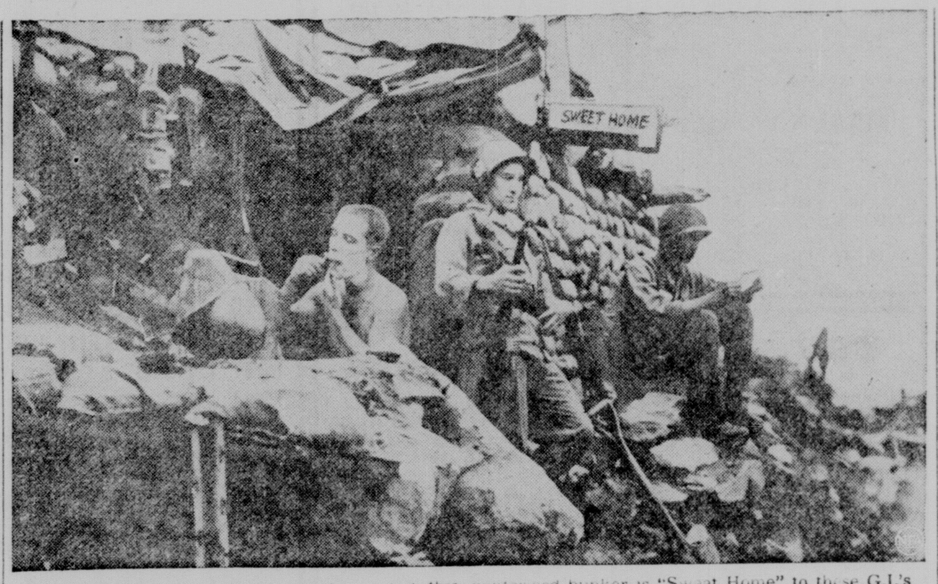

But highlight of the telephone talk for both Jerry and Douglas was an invitation to Jerry to come to Buffalo for a real Thanksgiving dinner next week.

And then the brothers will talk over Douglas' plan to try to bring Jerry to Buffalo to live with him.

Queen Celebrates Fifth Wedding Day With Duke of Windsor

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, entertained the Duke of Windsor at Buckingham Palace today at a family luncheon in quiet observance of the Queen's fifth wedding annversary.

The Queen had no engagements outside the palace.

The Duke of Windsor is visiting his mother, Queen Mary, at Marlborough House.

Entertainment of the Duke of Windsor at Buckingham Palace on a day of unusual sentimental significance to the royal family gave additional substance to reports that strains resulting from his abdication of the British throne in 1936 have been forgotten and forgiven. There was a growing feeling in court circles that he and the American-born Duchess of Windsor will attend the coronation of the Queen next June.

Tony Accardo, Chief Of Capone Syndicate, Freed of Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tony Accardo, reputed chief of the crime syndicate founded by Al Capone was freed today of contempt of Congress charges.

So was Joseph Scalleat of Hazleton, Pa., described by the Senate Crime Investigating Committee as a racketeer.

Both Accardo and Scalleat had been indicted for refusing to answer questions of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee.

Accardo was identified in testimony before the committee as the man who moved in as overlord of the Chicago rackets qhen Capone got out. Accardo also was said to have widespread interests in Florida.

The charges were dropped on a motion by the prosecutor, Assistant U. S. Attorney William Hitz. He told District Judge James R. Kirkland he had given "very careful study" to both cases and that he did not feel the government could prosecute them successfully in view of a flock of court decisions involving the claim of possible self-incrimination.

The downs of Berkshire, England, are composed of thin turf over white chalk. The chalk has been exposed over big areas in some 50 places in ancient and modern times to create huge white figures which were covered over during the war to prevent their use as guides by Nazi bombers, but uncovered after the war, says the National Geographic Society.

Man, Sought 17 Years In Gang Slayings, Caught

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A man sought since two gangland killings 17 years ago was under arrest today because police say he tried to use a slug in a pay telephone.

He was carrying $1,800 in cash at the time.

Officers identified him as Leonard Calaggiro Moceri, 45, also known as Leonardo Parisi and Leo (Lips) Licavoli.

He's being held for the FBI which wants to question him about the 1935 killings in Detroit, Mich., and Toledo, O. Details of the crimes weren't available.

Capt. J. E. Hamilton of the police intelligence division said Moceri would also be asked some questions about the unsolved Hollywood killings of Tony Brancato and Anthony Trombino on Aug. 6, 1950. The two were shot in the back of their heads as they sat in a car. Both had been linked with the underworld.

Moceri was arrested by two special telephone company agents yesterday in Hollywood. They said he attempted to use a slug in a phone.

Booked on a charge of suspicion of petty theft under the name of John Baker, he was released after posting $500 bond. By that time Hamilton continued, a fingerprint check showed the man was Moceri. He was again taken into custody. He admitted his identity and also claimed to be a cousin of Pete Licavoli.

(In 1951 Pete Licavoli refused to answer questions put by the Kefauver Senate Crime Investigating Committee during hearings in Detroit.)

Over 2½ Millions Worth of Supplies From Black Market

SEOUL (AP) — More than $2,500,000 worth of military supplies and equipment have been recovered from the orean black market this year, the U. S. Army announced tonight.

The recovery program has been conducted by the orean national police to curtail or eliminate trading in United Nations military items.

Since July, $721,000 in supplies and equipment have been returned to U. N. military supply channels which support frontline combat troops.

Raking of Leaves Can Become Both Pleasant and Profitable

Sedalia's beautiful autumn foliage doesn't seem so beautiful anymore — now that it is scattered drably across the lawns and backyards. But the man of the house, viewing it glumly as he stands with

You will find that leaves, properly prepared for the purpose, make a fine mulch.

rake in hand, may be heartened to learn that the raking of autumn leaves may be both pleasant and profitable.

The job must be repeated several times if there are many trees or if the leaves are covering a new or recently madeover lawn. The dry weather has hastened falling of leaves and also has caused them to dry out.

Dry leaves do little harm to the lawn but the gardener should not allow wet leaves to remain more than a few days. Wet leaves pack down and smother grass, especially tender young shoots and seed.

Use as many leaves as possible on the compost pile and as a mulch about trees and shrubs where soil is cultivated.

The leaves will decay during the winter and can be dug in next spring to build up humus content of the soil. Leaves should not be used to mulch flower beds. Straw or similar light litter is a much better protection because it will permit air and moisture to penetrate the beds.

Several inquiries concern the old habit of spreading manure over the lawn as a winter mulch. The answer is no. Manure is a splendid fertilizer but should never be used on an established lawn. Its place is in the soil.

Manure on the lawn will improve the soil but will kill much of the grass by smothering and burning. Neither should patches of frozen leaves be permitted to remain during the winter.

If you must burn leaves, choose a spot away from trees and shrubs, as the heat will rise and damage branches. Keep the fire small; a small fire burns faster and is easier to keep under control.

The loss of property and lives resulting from fires is staggering and yet much of it is preventable. It should be the duty of every citizen to report every grass or woods fire to the nearest authority.

Shady Yards A Problem

The gardener whose house faces the north or whose yard is so situated that it is in shade, is confronted with a serious problem. He wants plants of some sort which will tolerate shade. There are no shade-loving plants, despite many claims to the contrary.

One may find occasionally a plant doing well in the shade, but this is an exception. To give some semblance of planting about the foundation of the shady side of the house we are limited to a few varieties, which, if given much encouragement and ideal soil, will reward us for our efforts.

The only needle - leaved evergreens which tolerate shade are hemock and Japanese yew. Both must be planted away from the house so that there is plenty of air circulating about them and where the overhang of the roof does not prevent rains from reaching their tops.

The following broad - leaved evergreens are recommended for trial: Carolina rhododendron, hybrid rhododendron, mountain laurel, leucothoe (drooping andromeda), pieris japonica and floribunda, inkberry (ilex glabra), Japanese holly (ilex crenata), and its varieties.

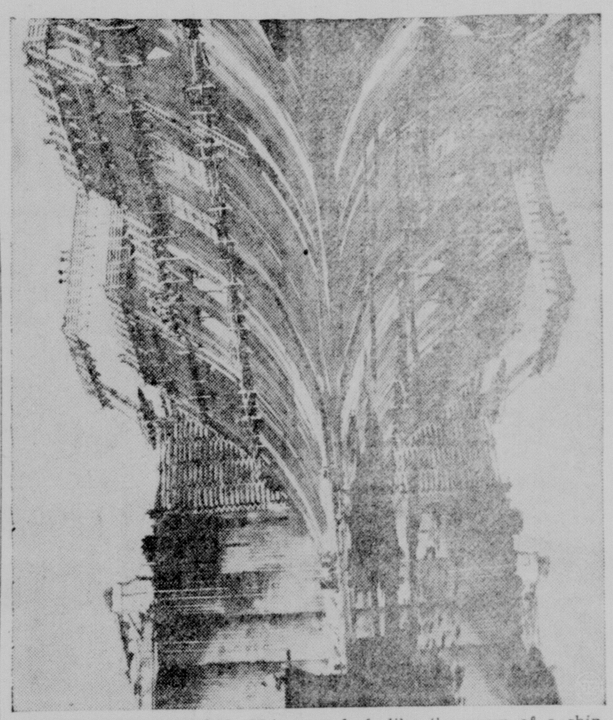

All these plants want a well-drained soil, rich in humus and on the acid side of the scale. Space your plants sufficiently far apart so that one may easily walk about them.

Pachysandra, myrtle (vinca minor), English ivy and evergreen bittersweet (euonymus radicans in variety) are recommended for an evergreen ground cover.

Few deciduous shrubs and trees will satisfy the gardener, as most of them grow too large for the average house. The flowering dogwood is used for height and accent, while the spice bush (clethra ainifolio), the smaller mock orange, avalanche, dwarf cranberry bush (viburnum opulus nanum), and mountain currant (ribes alpinum) are recommended because they will keep within bounds.

The honeysuckles, viburnums, cotoneasters and shrub dogwoods grow too fast and soon crowd out the desirable evergreens.

It is smarter to start with young plants unless one moves the larger shrubs from an existing shady planting which has been given excellent care and all material is in a healthy condition. Visit your nurseryman and be guided by his advice.

BIG DAM ILLUSION—This may look like the prow of a ship under construction, but it's just an illusion. Turn this page one-quarter turn to the right, and you'll see Chief Joseph Dam, at Bridgeport, Wash., mirrored in water covering the concrete "floor" of the downstream spillway. When completed, the dam will play an important part in the flood control of the Columbia River.

UN COMMEMORATIVE—The stamp, above, to be issued on Human Rights Day, Dec. 10, commemorates the adoption in 1948 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, by the General Assembly of the United Nations. The design was executed by J. Woyty-Wimmer, of London, and the stamp will be issued in three-cent and five-cent denominations.

For More Immigrants

Red-Trained Czech Going Before Court

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The former secretary general of the Czechoslovak Communist party, tough, Moscow-trained Rudolf Slansky, was listed for trial in Prague today with other purged leaders of the Red Czech regime—a mass hearing some diplomats expect will rival the 1936 Moscow trials.

Announcement of the hearing was made earlier today by Prague radio. The broadcast said that Slansky would be tried together with "his group," but it gave no indication of how many defendents would face the court or who the others might be.

The radio also made no mention of the charges but Slansky and others purged with him have been publicly accused of high treason.

The radio said it would broadcast daily reports of the court proceedings. There have been no Western news correspondents in Czechoslovakia since the conviction last year of Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis on "spy" charges—a trial denounced throughout the non-Communist world.

Red-haired Slansky, one of the architects of the Red Czech regime, was arrested in Nov., 1951, along with scores of other top government and party officials in a full-sclae purge of Communist ranks.

At that time, Czech President Klement Gottwald accused him of "anti-state activities" and linked both him and former Foreign Minister Vlado Clementis together as "Titoist" traitors to Moscow.

Clementis, also an old-time Communist, has been in jail awaiting trial for almost two years on charges of masterminding a plot to overthrow the Red regime and turn the country over to "Western imperialists."

Earlier this year, Stefan Rais, Czech minister of justice, said that Slansky and Clementis would be tried along with Otto Sling, one-time political secretary of the Communist party in the city of Brno, and other purged figures on charges of plotting to murder President Gottwald.

Vienna reports last March said that Slansky and a score of other purged Czech Communists had been taken to Moscow and there forced to "confess" to alleged crimes in preparation for a mass trial.

Czech newspapers and radio broadcasts have publicly accused scores of former prominent figures of being "traitors." Among those mentioned are:

Vilem Novy, former editor of the Communist newspaper Rude Pravo; Lt. Gen. Bedrich Reicin, former deputy defense minister; Arthur London, former deputy foreign minister; Ezven Leobl, former deputy minister of foreign trade; Oskar Klinger, a former department chief in the Foreign Ministry, and Maria Svermova, former party secretary in Prague.

The Czech public has been told that the purged leaders were members of a "Trotskyite-Zionist" conspiracy aimed at overthrowing the government with the support of the Western Powers.

Slansky and many of the others arrested are of Jewish origin.

Some Western sources interpreted the purge as a smashing blow in the bitter struggle for power from which Gottwald is emerging as the Stalin of Czechoslovakia—personal and political boss of the party and nation, with his rivals and their followers in jail.

British Lady Writer Coming To Write Film

LONDON (AP)—Storm warning for Hollywood!

Acid-tongued poet-historian-lecturer Dr. Edith Sitwell sails tomorrow for the cinema wilderness to write a film script of her book "Fanfare for Elizabeth."

Dr. Edith gave a tea at Claridges yesterday to acquaint the literary world with the fact.

A group of dazed newspaper writers staggered back into the wet streets of London not certain whether they were here or in the 16th century.

The statuesque Miss Sitwell appeared in a black gilded cowl ("I resemble Henry VII strongly—he was an ugly old man") and a black bombazine floor-length dress, and sported long gilt fingernails. She also wore a topaz ring some two inches square, and on her wrist were two huge gold bangles.

"I love horror," she explained sweetly. She did say she was a bit worried about Hollywood because George Bernard Shaw once warned her that film people are the greatest wolves. She insists she is 81 years old but reference books contend she's only 65.

"My first scene," she wants Hollywood and Columbia pictures to know, "will be most appallingly morbid. Murder hovers around, and there will be an absolutely superb scene in a hospital for leprous virgins."

She's not disturbed about censorship—"The patients will be dressed as nuns."

Miss Sitwell lists her recreation in "Who's Who" as "silence." She was out of character at yesterday's tea.

She plans to work in bed. Here's her schedule:

Up at 6:30 for some writing and waiting for tea at 7:30.

Breakfast at 8 work until coffee at 11, then rest in bed writing until lunchtime, when she dresses.

Then a bit of air and back to bed. No work in the afternoon while she waits for teatime.

"In the evening I hardly ever get up unless there's some party which I think I'll enjoy wildly."

"In any case, I'm in bed again by 10 p.m."

"The studio won't get anything out of me if they try to drag me out of bed."

The film story is about Elizabeth I until the age of 3. It mostly concerns her mama, Anne Boleyn.

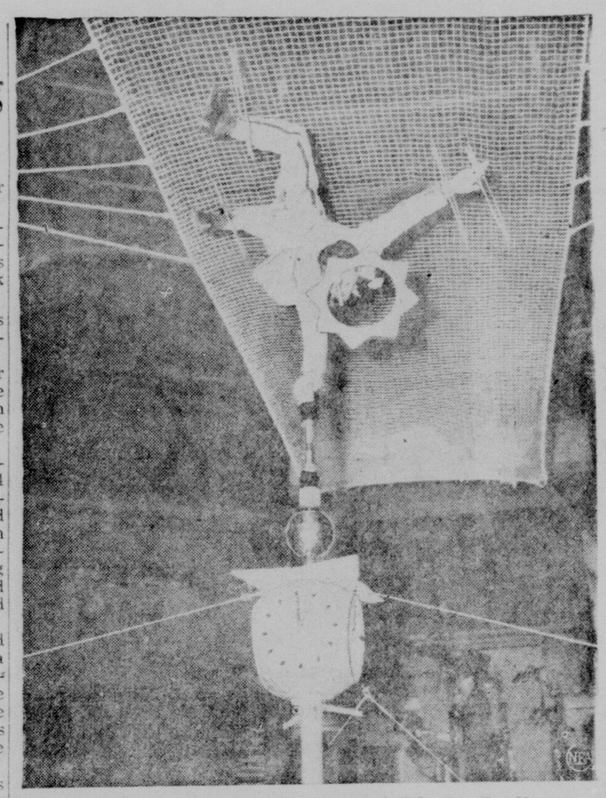

Wants Sen. George To Guide the Party

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia and some other Senate Democrats would guide the Democratic party over the next four years if South Carolina's Sen. Burnet Maybank has his way.

Maybank told newsmen yesterday he does not recognize Adlai Stevenson, the defeated Democratic presidential candidate, as titular head of the party until the next presidential election.

Maybank, who favored Russell for president this year and says he would again in 1956, said he includes himself among the other senators he described as "caretakers of the party."

The volcano Vesuvius has furnished knowledge which enables volcanologists to predict eruptions of other volcanoes.

HE HASN'T LEARNED TO FALL UP, YET—Tay-Ru, Viennese juggler who is performing with a circus troop in Paris, has mastered the art of juggling while doing a precarious hand-stand, but he hasn't learned to fall upward, yet. The safety net above him is for protection of high-wire aerialists.

Hal Boyle's Column—

Never Yet Has Woman Fallen In Love With a Mustache

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Many women have married a man because of his bankroll. But did any woman ever marry a fellow solely because of his mustache?

Did she ever, crumpling shyly against his manly bosom murmur:

"You yourself have an utterly resistible personality, my dear. But your mustache! Ah, I can fight against it no longer. It has swept me quite off my feet."

A boy, rubbing castor oil on his upper lip to stir the slow growth of the reluctant fuzz thereon, may daydream of such situations. But I have never heard in real life of a mustache with much romantic influence.

What is the actual social impact of the mustache?

This question arises because it appears that this form of male facial landscaping is getting more papular. It seems to me I see more and more mustaches around. I would like to believe this is only because there are more people in the world, as I like to look at the bright side of things.

I would hate to see mustaches become a badge of valor or a measure of achievement, as in a society in which that were true I would have to become a hermit.

Men grow mustaches for only three general reasons:

1. They have an inferiority complex.
2. To pay an election bet.
3. Curiosity.

The first of these reasons is the most widespread. And the average mustache carrier will admit it, if pressed.

"I grew mine to prove to myself that I could do something the other guys in my crowd hadn't done," one said. "It helped me overcome a lifelong feeling of inferiority, and gave me an immediate sense of security and personal victory."

The boy or man who rears a mustache out of curiosity or to pay an election bet he has lost soon finds the novelty wears thin and off comes the mustache. The time and trouble it takes are no longer worth the effort.

But one who grows a mustache to cure himself of inferiority will never yield it until death. In case of fire he places its safety before that of women and children.

It is his hairy manner of success in the battle every man fights within himself, his flag against the world. Behind every mustache lurks a mouse that has been turned by this symbol into a lion.

Ever watch a man with a mustache? Notice how he toys with it, reaching up now and then to be comforted by the fact it is still there? He never is safe from the fear someone will take it away from him, or shave it off while he is asleep.

A mustache automatically turns a man with an inferiority complex into a man with a superiority complex. Secretly or openly, he becomes a snob about it. Often he will take more trouble to discipline it properly than the ordinary parent does to curb a wayward son. He couldn't sell it for a cup of coffee, but to him it is a patch of real estate more valuable than all the forests of Canada.

In his case clothes don't make the man—but his mustache does.

That, I believe, is why wives put up with husbands' mustaches. Being kissed by them must be vaguely like being hit in the mouth with a toothbrush. But a woman tells herself, "Well, if it makes my little man feel taller, I'll go along."

And that's what the mustache does do. It gives the fellow the same feeling he had when he wore stilts as a boy.

What I have against mustaches is that I once tried to grow one out of curiosity — and found I couldn't. It didn't grow. It drooped and dribbled.

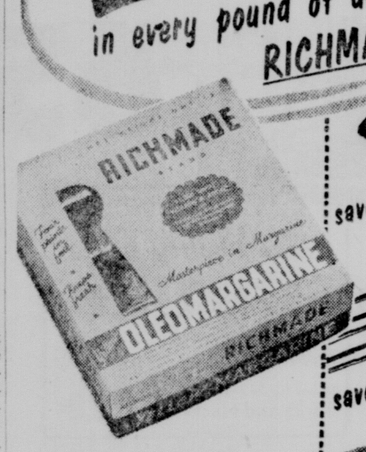

How do you cure an inferiority complex arising from the discovery you can tear a telephone book in half, but can't grow a measly, piddling, worthless unsightly, out-of-date, impractical thing like a mustache that nobody really wants anyway?

Billy Lee Bozarth Reports Pet Dog Been Poisoned

Billy Lee Bozarth, 113 South Park avenue, reports his four year old pet dog has been killed — killed by a dog poisoner. The dog got away last Sunday and returned home Monday morning sick, barely able to walk and Monday afternoon it died at the Gouge and Gouge animal hospital. An examination revealed poison as the cause.

The dog had been tied up for nearly four years, with the exception of a brief time each day to run around the yard. Sunday afternoon the dog was playing in the yard and disappeared within a few minutes.

When found, it was sent to the hospital by Fred Kueck Jr., a neighbor of Bozarths, who had watched the dog for several years at play in the back yard. Another friend said: "I wonder how the person who delights in putting out poison would feel if he (or she) would sit down to eat a sandwich only to find a few minutes later it had contained poison. That person should put himself in the same position with a helpless animal. Too bad the poisoner could not get some of his (or her) own dose."

True, people do not like dogs running over their gardens, but who has a garden now. Dogs are not going to hurt anything purposely. If a dog is bothering you, call the dog catcher at 811. He'll take care of the situation.

Mute Testimony To Fury of Battle For Korea's Hills

The pile of shoes at right lies outside a medical aid station not far from the "Hook," hotly contested hill section on Korea's west-central front. Each pair represents one man who has received leg injuries during the fierce fighting. Below, a Korean Service Corps laborer starts to salvage thousands of shell casings, which testify to the intensity of the huge artillery barrages laid down by United Nations guns in the fighting for Triangle Hill.

Grandson They Had Not Seen Comes from Canada for Visit

By Mrs. Herbert Hansen

LINCOLN — Mr. and Mrs. Levi Claycomb were happily surprised late Saturday evening when their grandson, Don Roberts, 20, whom they had never seen, arrived for a visit. Don lives at Fawn, British Columbia, and he plans to visit his grandparents and other relatives here until Christmas.

Mrs. Anna Jackson and family had as dinner guests at their home west of town Sunday, Mrs. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Grace Short, her sister and brother and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Short, Illinois, and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Simms, Kansas City, who also visited their mother and spent a few days vacationing at the Ozarks, and her son, Pfc. Junior Jackson, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Simms also visited Mr. and Mrs. Glen Short, Green Ridge.

Mrs. Mary Jackson had as her guests during the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rawlins, Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. G. Tindall, Sedalia, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elbert, Windsor.

Mrs. Minnie Scheneward has moved to the home she recently purchased in the east part of town. It was formerly owned by the late Mrs. Agnes Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Chaney, Windsor, were Sunday guests of their mother and sister, Mrs. Bell Chaney and Gladys.

Mrs. Martha Hale is visiting at Atlanta, Ga., with her daughter and fmily, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Loder, and is now making the acquaintance of her new granddaughter. Mrs. Loder is a former resident of this community and expects to be gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Keseman and Judith Ann, Bolivar, visited relatives here and at Sedalia over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hansen and two children, Pratt, Kan., are spending a week with relatives and friends here.

S. O. Brill has returned home after being a patient in Research Hospital, Kansas City, the past two weeks.

Jerry Lehman, who was painfully injured in a fall from a tree where he was building a tree house, has returned home from Lakeside Hospital, Kansas City, where he was taken. Jerry suffered a double dislocated elbow and torn ligaments. His arm which was placed in a cast, was his only injury and he has resumed work in his class room.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hansen were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hansen and Connie, Warsaw.

Lonnie Vogler, Kansas City, returned home Tuesday following a two week visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Means and Sue.

Glen Lehman made a business trip to Ozawkie, Kan., the first of the week.

Mrs. Bill McPhearson has been quite ill at her home.

Mrs. Bobbie McFarland and daughter, Connie, Kansas City, spent one day this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen, Denver, Colo., who have been guests of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hansen, Otterville, visited for several days with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Higgins, Warsaw and with his brothers, H. F., A. B. and Herbert Hansen.

A Democrat class ad will do it.

A letter came in the mail and the father of the family opened it and read that the final papers had been completed for the adoption of Bobbie — not quite two years old.

"Bob is just as much yours now as if he had been born to you," read the letter from the lawyer.

The father looked over at the child and said: "Well, Bobbie, this letter says that you really belong to us now."

Bobbie's eyes got big and he held out his hand with "Let me see—." H. L.

About six months ago a woman bought a new electric stove and she had been enjoying it to the fullest — at least she thought to the fullest. Then she made a discovery. It had an electric clock on it and it had taken her six months to find out that it was a clock.

The little old clock just ran fine all the time but all the six months she had been going into the next room to look at the clock in there, to see what time it was — when right there before her was this little timepiece. She thought it was just an ornament on the stove. Then the other day she noticed the hands moving so she looked at the little ornament closely and sure enough it was a clock. And what is more it was giving her the right time just the same as the one in the next room.

"Mother," said her daughter, "how dumb do people get?"—H. L.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Roy Bendure, formerly of Sedalia but more recently of Kansas City where he was a member of the police force, received a promotion to detective.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Eisenhower Is Invited To Chile and Mexico

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1952. By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON—General Eisenhower has received two invitations to visit Latin America and is considering the possibility of making a good-neighbor trip there before his inauguration Jan. 20.

The two invitations are from Mexico and Chile, both among the few remaining democracies in the Western Hemisphere. Though Chile is now under the presidency of General Ibanez, he was elected in a free election and has shown no tendencies toward dictatorship, though he staged an anti-U. S. A. campaign to get elected. The Eisenhower trip would help to meet Ibanez' frigidity.

If Eisenhower makes the pilgrimage, he would follow in the footsteps of Herbert Hoover who made a good-will tour of Latin America between the period of his election and inauguration.

Some of Ike's advisers urge that since Latin Americans generally hoped Stevenson would be elected, he should go; thus dispelling Latin-American predictions of a return to isolationist imperialism under the Republicans.

Friction Among Democrats

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas will be the new leader of Senate Democrats all right, but some Democratic senators aren't at all happy about it. They figure that "Lyin'-Down," as he is nicknamed, will follow a pro-Republican line and there won't be much Democratic opposition to GOP policies.

What Senator Johnson did to ensure his selection was to start a telephone barrage the day after election to line up votes for himself. When freshmen senators such as "Scoop" Jackson of Washington and Mike Mansfield of Montana were pressured by Lyndon there wasn't much they could say except that they would support him.

Later, Mansfield was asked by an older southern senator why he had been stampeded into endorsing Johnson. Then new senator from Montana didn't have much of an answer.

"Don't you think it's healthy to have Texans leading the party in both houses of Congress — Sam Rayburn in the House and Johnson in the Senate?" Mansfield was asked.

"I thought Lyndon was Sam Rayburn's boy," Mansfield replied. "And if there's anything I can ever do to repay Rayburn for the favors he's done me I'd like to do it."

Senators Paul Douglas of Illinois, Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, and Guy Gillette of Iowa tried to organize opposition to Johnson with Gillette urging Senator Lister Hill of Alabama to become minority leader. Senator Pastore of Rhode Island also urged Senator Clements of Kentucky to serve.

When Senator Fulbright of Arkansas sounded out Lister Hill, however, the Alabama solon replied:

"No, sir, I had enough of being Senate leader. If Lyndon wants that job let him have it.

"I don't know but what he's making an awful mistake, though," philosophized Hill. "He's up for re-election two years from now and look what's happened to McFarland in Arizona and what happened to Scott Lucas in Illinois.

"Every Democratic leader of the Senate of late has been defeated. And it's bound to happen again. For the man who's Senate leader just hasn't got the time to give to his own state. So folks back home turn him out when his term is up.

"No, sir," concluded Hill. "If Lyndon wants that job, let him have it."

Truman And Adlai

It isn't supposed to be known, but Governor Stevenson will come to Washington on or about Dec. 1 to spend an evening with President Truman and chart the future course of the Democratic party.

Truman will pretty much turn over the party to Stevenson at that time.

One thing they will discuss is the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee, now in the hands of Stevenson's former law associate, Stephen Mitchell. There are a lot of divergent views among Democrats as to what lost them the election, but one thing they all agree on is that Mitchell didn't help.

Mitchell did not call one meeting of the Democratic National Committee during the campaign, though urged to do so repeatedly. He would not even call regional meetings. He antagonized so many local leaders that many refused even to call him on the phone.

Stevenson may insist on keeping Mitchell, but Truman and everyone around him will urge that he be eased out.

GOP Partonage Row

Taftites aren't at all happy over the appointment of Herbert Brownell, former campaign manager for Governor Dewey, as chief patronage adviser for General Eisenhower.

In their opinion this means that jobs, for which the GOP has been waiting 20 long, lean years, will now go to the Dewey wing of the Republican party.

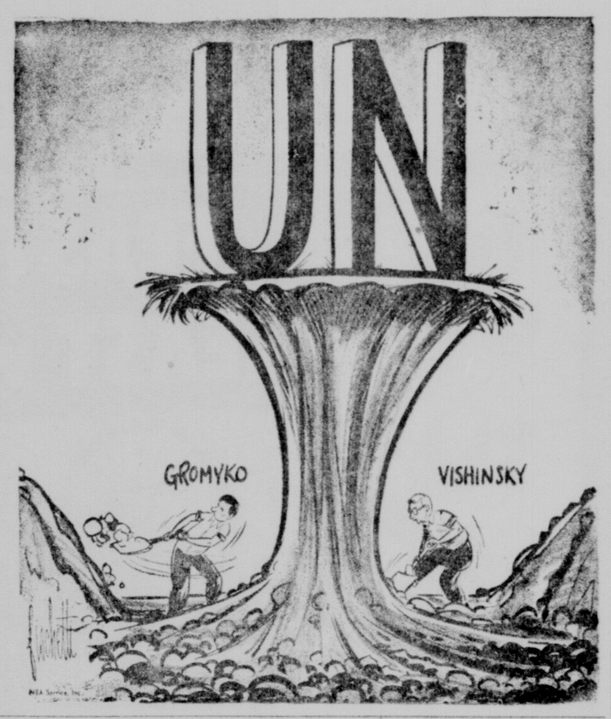

Brownell is under instructions to clear appointments with GOP National Chairman Arthur Summerfield, who is a Taft man, and to work with the Republican National Committee. Furthermore, he is only to handle jobs below cabinet rank.

Nevertheless, leaders of the Taft wing are not at all happy. They foresaw something like this immediately after the Chicago Convention at which Dewey and Brownell were largely responsible for nominating Eisenhower. And it was fear that the Deweyites might take over patronage that caused Taft to write a special patronage provision into the "Declaration of Morningside Heights" after his breakfast with Eisenhower.

Brownell went down to Augusta quite unobtrusively and the first thing the Taft people knew he had come back to New York with the job-screening arrangements in his hands. He is to set up charts on job vacancies, check on loyalty, ability, etc., of candidates. And while he is instructed to check with Summerfield, the power to recommend — which is all-important — will be largely his.

NOTE — REgardless of Dewey's unpopularity inside his own party, he has picked some top men to run his administration in New York State.

Danger—Men Working

The World Today—

Still Guessing On Cabinet

By ARTHUR EDSON
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP) — The guessing game, begun before the election returns had a chance to cool, will continue until Dwight D. Eisenhower announces his choice: Who will be in the new cabinet?

Already the rumors have piled up enough names to fill the cabinet, with enough left over for a couple of alternate teams.

Among those mentioned:

John Foster Dulles, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. of Massachusetts, Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas, Harold Stassen, John J. McCloy, Patrick J. Hurley, Paul Hoffman, Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado, Gov. Arthur Langlie of Washington, Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, Gov. Earl Warren of California and Arthur Summerfield, the Republican national chairman.

In picking his cabinet, a president may consider such things as: Does it satisfy all factions of the party? How about those who originally backed Sen. Robert A. Taft? Taft talked with Eisenhower yesterday, and later said he had made two or three recommendations.

How does it stack up geographically? Are all sections represented? Should a Southerner get a cabinet post? Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, for instance, has been mentioned as a cabinet possibility.

Have I paid off my political debts, rewarding those who ran political risks by supporting me? It could be argued that Lodge might have been able to keep his Senate seat had he been working for himself when he was working for Eisenhower.

Is each man capable of organizing and handling his department effectively? In short, does he have executive talent?

Every president-elect has faced the same problem, but Eisenhower's may be the toughest of all.

For one thing, the Republicans have spent 20 years stressing waste and mismanagement in the federal government. They have said they could manage it much better. Now that they have their chance, they know they'll be eyed critically.

For another, look at the size of government. A cabinet officer not only must offer expert advice on policy matters, but he also must head an organization of tremendous size. In a department like State, it's an organization which is world-wide.

4-Star General Delivers Package To a Marine Cook

WITH U. S. FIRST MARINE DIVISION, Korea (AP)—A four star general delivered a package of goodies to a Marine company cook today after toting it half way around the world.

"Mission completed," said Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg as he handed a package of food to PFC. Nicholas Baldwin, of Minneapolis.

The U. S. Air Forces Chief of Staff became "delivery boy" as a favor to Baldwin's parents whom he met in Europe earlier on his around the world inspection tour of American air bases.

On the first stop of his tour of U. N. ground forces today, Vandenberg met 24-year-old Baldwin at a light plane airstrip.

"I brought a package for you," Vandenberg said, "I think there's some food in it. I hope your buddies don't eat it all up."

Vandenberg shook hands with Baldwin, who was surrounded by a star-studded array of Army, Marine and Air Force brass.

Baldwin said later: "I was plenty shook."

Murder she yelled

© by Joseph Shallit Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

By Joseph Shallit

XXVIII

I WENT on with my theory of the murders: "I haven't rehearsed this part. But just talking at random, it might go like this. Our friend sneaked down to the bridge to pick up the dough, and nothing's there. Something's wrong, he doesn't know what. But there's still a pocketful of phony money burning his leg. At least he can realize something on that. So after the dance our friend goes back to the office, opens the door and gets the surprise of his life to find Al and Eddie there. Al takes one look and realizes th is his big itch, the blackmailer and safe-opener. Al jumps up, either to grab the villain or the phone, and the visitor snatches the nearest thing handy, the ax, and swings, first knocking out Eddie, then ruining Al. As an afterthought, he picks their pockets to make the crime look like robbery."

Healey looked so impressed I was impressed myself. "One thing," he said. "What about the open safe?"

"Oh, yes . . . well, after he slugged them, the guy probably rushed the safe to switch the rest of his phony money and then beat it without taking time to lock it. Maybe he was scared by the sound of Chris Witmer coming from the rec hall."

"Why didn't he just cart off the dough in the safe instead of taking time to switch bad money for good?"

I waved that one away. "When you've worked out a plan thoroughly, you sometimes carry it out to the letter even if you're in a daze."

Healey shook his head, not caring for that. "I think you've got a loose spot there."

"I don't think so. But there's something else I've thought of—something that's really loose."

"What's that?"

"All my speculation adds up to the fact that the one who murdered Al was somebody on these premises, not an outsider. If that's the case, what about the car Eddie heard speeding out of there right after the slugging?"

"There's nothing hard about that. To bug up anybody who might be awake and listening, the killer jumps into your station wagon, guns the motor, then lets it die down to make it sound like it's going away," Healey said.

"Maybe several people. Roslyn Fields gave Al a pretty hectic argument about more dough for Eddie—she really put her heart in it. And Kitty Lane—she might have been wanting to pile together a little dough for the future, since Al was beginning to make moves to slough her c If we step out of the official family, we have an interesting character named Leo Ritchie. He happer to be in ar-rears in his board bill."

The office door opened. Corporal Dillon barged in, walked around the desk and pushed a typewritten sheet of paper in front of Healey.

He stood up. "I'm taking a ride down to the hospital, Morrison. I'd like you to come along."

I followed him out to his gray sedan. "What's it about?"

He grinned. "You won't even let me have a little fun, eh? Okay. Answer me something serious. What would you say Kemmer was worth?"

"I'd guess $50,000."

"Okay. You've just inherited five thousand."

"Now what's this?"

"Dillon has just turned up Kemmer's will. It leaves 10 per cent to you, 10 to Kitty Lane and 10 to Chris Witmer. And the remaining 70 per cent goes to your funny little friend, Eddie Fields."

I said a very quiet wow.

• • •

WE found Eddie sitting up in bed, wearing a big white turban and a welcoming grin.

Healey sat up and moved across to Eddie's bed. He sat down on the edge and eyed Eddie closely. "We've found Kemmer's will. You're due to get 70 per cent of the estate. The High Hill place, the bank accounts, everything."

It was the most restrained show of enthusiasm on record. Eddie shook his head slowly. He closed his eyes and groaned a little. Then he opened his eyes and said, "This is the screwiest thing that ever happened."

Healey's head moved back warily. "What do you mean?"

Eddie gave a smile that needed a crutch. "You tell me I'm suddenly rich, and I have to tell you I can't take the dough."

"How do you mean that, Fields?" Healey said weakly.

"Just before I passed out, while I was lying in the office, Al moaned out he wanted everything to go to Kitty."

Healey sat there scowling at him. He got up and turned: "Why didn't you say something about this before?"

"I was waiting to see you."

"You mean you're voluntarily giving up your claim?"

"What can do? Cheat a dead man?"

• • •

I CAUGHT up with Healey down the corridor. "Where did Dillon find the will?" I asked.

Healey kept walking. "In Kemmer's trunk."

"I went through that trunk myself early yesterday morning, and I didn't notice anything that looked like a will."

Healey swerved around, his blue eyes sparking. "So you're the guy who broke the lock?"

"Nope—somebody got there before I did."

"Who?"

"I don't know, but I think whoever cracked the lock borrowed some canceled checks to copy Kemmer's signature on a fake will.

"What makes you think it's a fake?"

"Simple. Al would never have left all that dough to Eddie Fields. He wasn't quite that crazy about him."

"Was he so hot on the Lane woman?"

"No, he was thinking about ditching her, but he might have felt remorse."

Public Warned to Use Care When Preparing for Christmas Mailings

Christmas packages have started to flow through the Sedalia post office, and already some of the packages and greeting cards have been turned back to the senders because of improper wrapping, addressing and postage.

This needlessly takes the fun out of Christmas, because there are some very simple rules for preparing packages and greeting cards properly for Christmas mailing. Here is a condensed version of the information issued by the post office in an effort to help the public.

Postage — Save time by purchasing stamps in advance of the rush period. Be sure there is enough postage on all packages and letters.

Addresses—Label packages and letters with complete and legible addresses, and do it with ink. If the mail is going to a large city, include the delivery zone number.

Avoid the use of address tags unless absolutely necessaary. If such tags are used, then a slip of paper containing the names and addresses of both the sender and receiver should be placed inside the package, too, in case the outside tag should come off.

Don't forget to put a return address in the upper left hand corner of the package or letter, on the front. It should not be placed on the back, because this slows down delivery.

Greeting cards — The cards should be sent first-class mail to obtain the many advantages which this service affords. For instance, they may be sealed and contain written messages; they are delivered first; they are forwarded, if necessary, or returned to the sender, if not deliverable, without extra charge.

These services will not be available to those who send their cards by third-class mail. The charge for such is two cents if the weight does not exceed two ounces. They must be unsealed and not contain personal message.

If a large number of cards are being sent at one time, they should be tied in a bundle with the addresses all facing in the same direction, in order to speed their handling at the post office.

Packing and wrapping—Articles should be packed carefully and tightly in strong durable container with good quality paper and cord. The packages should not be sealed unless labeled with a printed inscription reading: "Contents, Merchandise — Postmaster: This parcel may be opened for postal inspection, if necessary." If the packages are not so labeled and are sealed, they must be sent as first class mail.

Limits of weight and size for surface parcels—Parcels sent as firstclass mail within the continental United States may not exceed 40 pounds through local, first, and second zones, and 20 pounds for third through eight zones. They must not be larger than 72 inches length and girth combined.

Second, third and fourth-class parcels sent to any place in the continental United States or its terrorities and possessions must weigh not more than 70 pounds and must not exceed 100 inches in girth and length combined.

Air parcel post—Packages sent by air parcel post must not exceed 70 pounds and 100 inches in length and girth combined.

To measure a package, a straight line between the ends, but not around the parcel at its thickest part is taken as its girth.

Permissible additions and enclosures—Simple salutations may be enclosed with parcel post packages, such as "Merry Christmas," "Happy New Year,... and "With Best Wishes." All parcels may be marked "Do Not Open Until Christmas."

Perishables—Perishables which are likely to spoil before reaching their destination will not be accepted for mailing. Other perishables must be declared and endorsed by the postal clerk with the word "Perishable" directly above the name of the person to whom the package is addressed

Insurance — Christmas gifts should be registered or insured. Parcels containing small articles of considerable value, such as watches and other articles of jewelry should always be registered.

Special features — For mailers wishing to speed their Christmas mail there are air mail, special delivery and special handling services. The extra rates for these services may be obtained easily at the post office.

DIFFERENT POINT OF VIEW—The street scene, above, appears distorted to the camera, but the observer, seated center, feels as if he were actually "in" the picture. Movies, taken with a 142-degree-angle lens, give a properly seated audience a 180-degree field of view, and the illusion of being part of the projected scene. Say Doctors Feel Military Duty Wasted On Dependents

By Frank Carey
AP Science Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP)—The president of the American Medical Association says many doctors are refusing to volunteer for military service because they feel too much of their time is wasted treating wives and children of armed forces members.

Dr. Louis H. Bauer of Hempstead, N.Y., called upon the services to find out how much time military doctors spend caring for dependents because, he said:

"Questionnaires sent to (medical) men on leaving the services cite this frequently as a cause of resentment—namely that they have been drafted from civilian life to take care of other civilians."

In urging an investigation by the armed forces, the AMA leader said yesterday in an address prepared for the 59th annual meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States:

"The necessity for extension of the doctor draft law will depend in part on the answer to this question."

Dr. Melvin A. Casberg, chairman of the Armed Forces Medical Policy Council, said yesterday doctors up to 51 years of age without veterans' status may be drafted early next year unless the present outlook in doctor supply improves.

At another point in his talk, Dr. Bauer asserted:

"The medical services of the armed forces are still suffering from unfavorable reactions, the result of the last war.

"There is no doubt that doctors were wasted at that time. Many were kept weeks and months in mobilization camps doing little. Others were assigned to duties of a nonmedical nature.

"Many, in fact most, of these conditions have now been largely eliminated....Unfortunately, this is not widely known. Former offirers have tended to discourage men from going into the services, because of their unfavorable recol-

Couple Gets 30 Thousand Dollar Wedding Fund

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—It's not every young bride and groom who get $30,000 to start housekeeping on. But then, not every bridegroom is a Medal of Honor winner.

The fund has been pledged to San Bernardino's own hero, Army Lt. Joseph Charles (Chuck) Rodriguez, 24, and his sweetheart, Rose Aranda, 22, of Colton, Calif.

They will be married Saturday, with a reception to follow in the high schoo cafeteria, the only place big enough to accommodate all the townsfolk who wish to come.

The couple will leave on a Mexican honeymoon arranged by Southern California Spanish-language newspapers. In Mexico they will be entertained by President Miguel Aleman.

When they return home Dec. 17, a citizens' committee intends to hand them a check for $30,000. The "House for Chuck" campaign will swing into high right after the wedding.

Rodriguez, now stationed at Norton Air Force Base here, won the Medal of Honor in orea as a private first class. He was cited for "an incredible display of valor" in charging up a hill to wipe out five enemy gun positions, killing 15 Communists with hand grenades.

Wolves Becoming Big Menace In Woods Of Poland Rural Area

WARSAW (AP)—Wolves are becoming an increasing menace in Poland's forest areas, where villagers and isolated peasants live in fear for their livestock and even their lives from these wild marauders.

Since the end of the war the wolves have increased in number and boldness in the vast forests of the Carpathian Mountains in the Southeast and the Masuria district of lakes and forest in Northeast Poland near the border with the Soviet Union.

In the Masuria district wolves attack watchdogs a few yards from home and raid livestock in farmyards. Farmers who have wandered too far into the forests unarmed have been killed.

Wisdoms Have 62nd Wedding Anniversary

By Mrs. Verna Palmer

GREEN RIDGE — Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wisdom of Lincoln, celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, at a family dinner at their home. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wisdom and daughter, Charlene, of Green Ridge.

W. W. Wisdom returned to his home Tuesday, Nov. 11, from Kansas City where he has been a patient for the past seven weeks at St. Luke's hospital.

The following relatives attended the wedding ceremony of Miss Fern Clevenger and Mr. Roland Oelrichs which was held at the Blackwater Chapel near Sweet Springs, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 9: Mrs. Mattie Clevenger, Ernestine, Louise and Jeanette Vannoy of Green Ridge and Mrs. John Tucker and daughters, Bonnie and Betty Clevenger, all of Windsor.

Mrs. Dorothy Iman of St. Louis spent a few days last week visiting Mrs. Wilma Eckhoff and daughters, Drue and Linda. Mrs. W. S. Iman who had been visiting relatives in St. Louis, accompanied her daughter-in-law to her home in Green Ridge.

Mrs. Helen Bucher was hostess at a family contributive dinner at her home in Green Ridge last Sunday.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Pfaff and daughters, Mary and Sue, of Warrensburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Woods and daughter, Mary Anna, of Independence, Miss Alberta and Miss Ruth Pfaff and Mrs. Theodore Howe, all of Ionia, John Richards of Chicago, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. John Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ream and sons, Eddie and Freddie, Philip Ream, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Baker, all of this community, and Daniel McCampbell of Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Ragar and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spickert attended a state-wide meeting of American Legion Post commanders and Adjutants, auxiliary unit presidents and secretaries held at the Governor and Missouri hotels in Jefferson City last weekend.

The annual chicken pie supper and bazaar held by the women of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church, Tuesday night, Nov. 11, in the basement of the church was a success. Approximately $360 was netted, which will be used for church purposes.

J. M. Palmer, Roland Fletcher and George Weller attended the Heart of Missouri Odd Fellow Association held in Warrensburg, Monday night, Nov. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Welty of Nevada, Iowa, arrived in Green Ridge, Friday, to attend to business matters and look after their farm northwest of Green Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Welty were overnight guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. George Spickert.

Bobby Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Williams of near Green Ridge, who was injured last Tuesday afternoon while riding a horse at his home was taken to Bothwell Hospital where an examination and X-ray pictures were made that revealed he was suffering from a brain concussion. Bobby returned to his home Thursday afternoon where he is recovering nicely and expects to be back in school in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sims of Belton, were guests recently of his mother, Mrs. Ethel Sims and aunt, Miss Ruth Hamlin, at their home here.

Robert Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ward, arrived in Green Ridge, Sunday morning, Nov. 16, for a furlough visit with his parents and his brother, Harold.

Robert has been serving on the carrier USS Princeton, in Korean waters and arrived in the United States Nov. 3.

After his visit here he will report to a Navy Base at Alameda, Calif., for duty, where hs wife and sons reside.

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 491 met in regular session, Monday night, Nov. 10, at Bennett Hall.

The president, Mrs. Carl Spickert, presided at the meeting. The members gave the pledge to the Flag and the preamble to the Constitution in unison.

Routine business was taken care of. Mrs. Royal Ragar presented an interesting report of a meeting she attended in Jefferson City, Oct. 8.

The committee reported that the Christmas boxes had been packed and mailed to the local boys that are serving overseas.

The meeting adjourned and the hostesses, Mrs. Wallace Bullard and Mrs. Earl Embree, served refreshments to nine members and five guests. A social hour was enjoyed.

Green Ridge IOOF Lodge held its regular meeting Tuesday night, Nov. 11. During the business meeting the annual Thanksgiving oyster supper was planned. The supper will be held Wednesday night, Nov. 26, and the Odd Fellows and their families and the members of the Green Ridge Rebekah Lodge and their families will be guests.

Mrs. Ethel Sims was hostess to the members of the Triple F Club Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 5, at her home here. Ten members were present. Refreshments were served following th meeting.

The Board of Education of Green Ridge Reorganized School District R-8, held a special meeting recently to settle the question about girl students wearing jeans to school. The Board ruled that it would be permissible for children in the grades of one to six inclusive to wear blue jeans to school if the parents wish them to.

The girls in the junior and senior high school may wear jeans to school but must change after they arrive at school and they may change back into their jeans before leaving school in the afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Arlen Puts On Blue Bonnet —Admires F.N.E.!

Every mother can use this suggestion from Mrs. Richard Arlen. Put on BLUE BONNET Margarine and get F.N.E.—Flavor, Nutrition, Economy! Like the wife of the noted Hollywood star, you will love the delicate, sunny-sweet taste BLUE BONNET adds to any food! You'll appreciate its nourishment, too. No other spread for bread is richer in year-round Vitamin A! And you'll welcome its economy. Two pounds of BLUE BONNET cost less than one pound of high-priced spread! So remember the letters . . . F . . . N . . . E! Buy All-Vegetable BLUE BONNET Margarine and get "all three"—Flavor! Nutrition! Econom-e-e!

China Radio Praises Ties With Soviet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Chinese Communist radio broadcasts this month have pulled out all the stops in lavish praise of the military, political and economic allanice between Red China and the Soviet Union.

The Red propaganda has been geared to an officially proclaimed "Sino-Soviet Friendship Month." With every facility at its command the Peiping administration has sought to show its appreciation for Russian aid and to popularize it among China's own peoples.

From various Chinese cities have come reports of mass rallies, touring song and dance teams, cultural missions and wreath-laying ceremonies "in honor of Soviet martyrs who heroically sacrificed their lives in the war of liberation of Northeast China (Manchuria)."

During the civil war, the Chinese Communists carefully refrained from acknowledging any direct Russian military help, although it was termed a war of liberation. The reference to liberation of Manchuria apparently was to the closing week of World War II when Marshal Malinovsky's Second Ukrainian Army swept through the Japanese defenders into Korea.

A flood of Soviet pictures have been released throughout China. In Mukden 16 theaters showed Soviet color pictures exclusively.

One Red radio commentary noted that friendly relations dating back more than 30 years had been bulwarked by the 1950 Sino-Soviet Treaty of Friendship, Military Alliance and Mutual Assistance. The treaty is aimed primarily at Japan.

Peiping cited the following accomplishments from its binding ties with Moscow:

1. USSR has consistently upheld the right of China to participate in the United Nations and opposed the U. S. "invasion" of Korea and "occupation" of Formosa.

2. China and Russia jointly rejected the peace treaty with Japan.

3. Russia lent China 300 million dollars to restore its economy.

4. Russia handed over to China, without payment, buildngs of the Peiping, property acquired from the Japanses in Manchuria, property in Dairen under lease to the Soviet Union. By the end of this year the Russians are due to transfer all installations and properties of the jointly operated Changchun Railway in Manchuria.

5. At the request of China, Russia agreed to extend joint use of the naval base at Port Arthur "to prevent new aggression from U. S.-fostered Japan."

Biggest Postwar Job In Europe, NATO Airfields

PARIS, Nov. 15 (AP)—In the most gigantic construction job known in postwar Europe, 10,000 Frenchmen are working to build 40 military airfields for defense of the West.

The half-billion-dollar project is being paid for by the North Atlantic Treaty Allies. The work is being done almost entirely by French technicians and laborers with French materials.

Although the job has been under way slightly less than two years, the work already equals, in quantity of materials and manpower used, the building of the vast and costly Maginot Line.

A qualified source gave this picture of the present stage of construction:

Of the 40 airfields, 25 will have all their runways, taxiways, drainage and electric power outlets — but no hangars, shops or barracks —by the end of the year.

In other words, these fields will be so they could be used in an emergency by airmen living and working in tents. These 25 fields are to have hangars and shops, but maybe not barracks, by the end of 1953.

Fourteen of the 40 airfields will have hangars and shops, but no barracks, by the end of this year. These fields will have barracks and other buildings by the end of 1953.

One airfield — the Royal Canadian Air Force base at Gros Tenquin—will be complete by the end of the year with barracks, mess and recreation halls and all the trimmings.

Three NATO airfields for French use are expected to be brought up to this top construction level early next year.

So far, among France's NATO allies there are Americans at three airfields and Canadians at one.

It costs about 3½ billion francs 10 million dollars to build a field with concrete runways, taxiways, hangars, shops and underground fuel tanks—but no barracks—an informed source said. This is the stage of development that SHAPE, which sets the airfield specifications, requires of the French builders.

Another 3½ billion francs are needed to finish up an airfield to best peacetime standards with prefabricated barracks, mess halls, theaters, clubs and hospitals.

The cost of the runways, taxiways and electric power terminals, fuel tanks and sometimes hangars is borne jointly by NATO. The rest of the construction is paid by the country using the field.

Miss Sarah Trotter spent the summer in Europe to broaden her education. She can now talk for hours about the Americans she saw over there as well as criticize French sauces and the English custom of driving on the wrong side of the road.

Fastest Animal

The cheetah is the fastest animal in the world. Found in Asia and Africa, and belonging to the cat family, it is three to four feet long, lithe, graceful, easily trained, and gentle. In India and Persia, it is used for hunting antelopes and has been timed at 70 miles per hour.

A modern sugar beet factory can handle 6,000 tons of sugar beets daily.

May Set Execution Date for Rosenbergs

NEW YORK (AP)—An execution date for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, convicted atomic spies, may be set tomorrow by Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman.

U. S. Atty. Myles J. Lane said yesterday he will ask Kaufman to set the electrocution date.

The couple have been in Sing Sing Prison's death house since their conviction March 29, 1951, on charges of relaying atomic secrets to Russia.

On Monday the U. S. Supreme Court for a second time rejected an appeal for a review of the conviction.

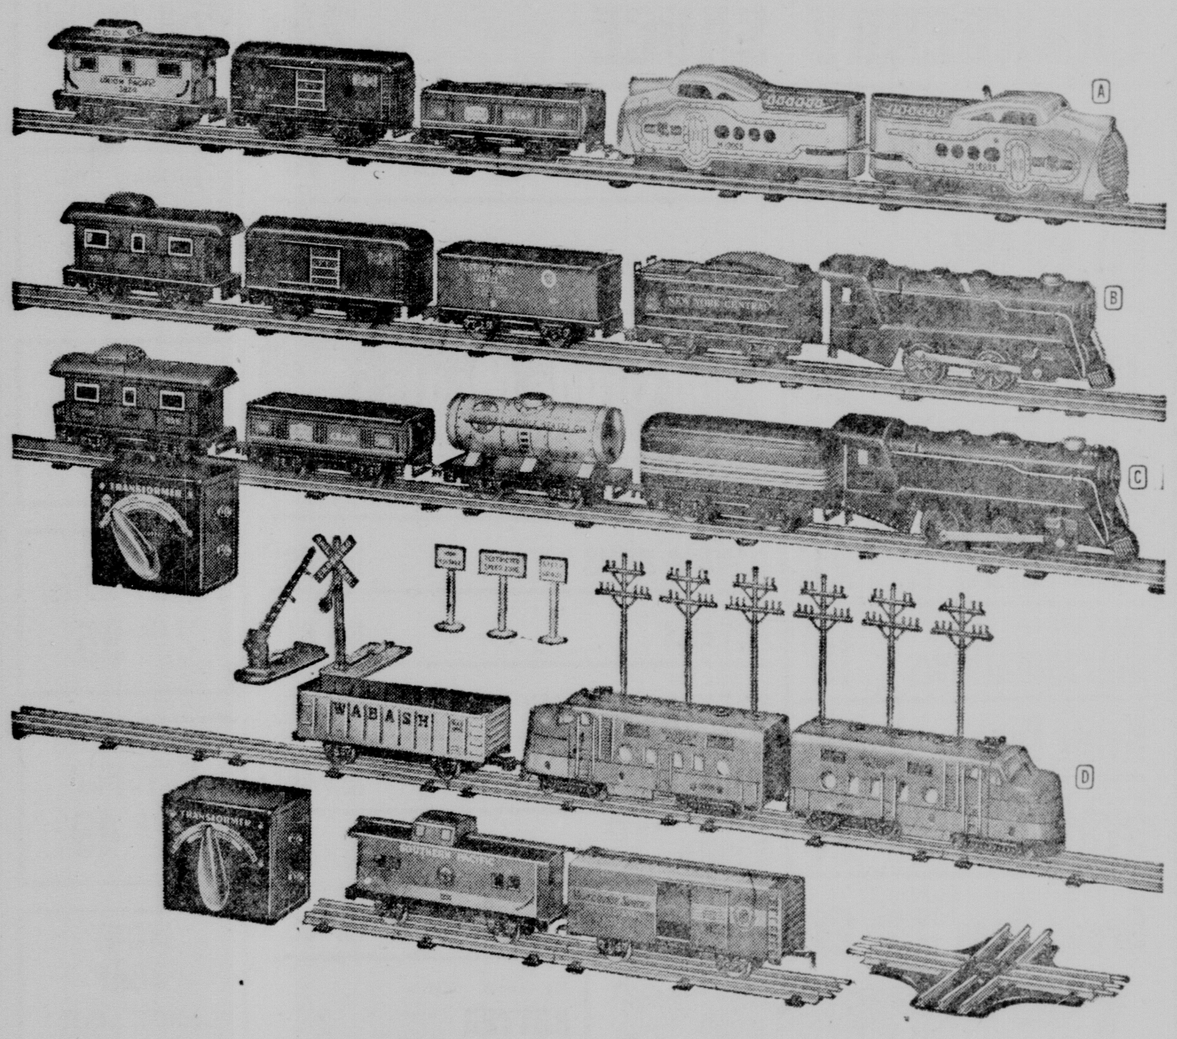

California and Denmark are only 5,000 miles apart by way of the Arctic.

A Democrat class ad will do it.
